Anger Barbara H. Rosenwein,2020-07-14 Tracing the story of anger from the Buddha to Twitter Rosenwein provides a much needed account of our changing and contradictory understandings of this emotion All of us think we know when we are angry and we are sure we can recognize anger in others as well But this is only superficially true We see anger through lenses colored by what we know experience and learn Barbara H Rosenwein traces our many conflicting ideas about and expressions of anger taking the story from the Buddha to our own time from anger s complete rejection to its warm reception Rosenwein explores how anger has been characterized by gender and race why it has been tied to violence and how that is often a false connection how it has figured among the seven deadly sins and yet is considered a virtue and how its interpretation once largely the preserve of philosophers and theologians has been gradually handed over to scientists with very mixed results Rosenwein shows that the history of anger can help us grapple with it today

Overcoming Tradition And Modernity Robert D. Lee,2018-02-12 Authenticity has begun to rival development as a key to understanding the political aspirations of the Islamic world Almost everywhere modernity has laid waste to tradition those habits and practices deemed to be timeless and true Imperialism carried European notions of progress into Muslim dominated parts of the globe and subsequently Muslims themselves espoused Western practices techniques and philosophies Regimes calling themselves liberal socialist and Arab nationalist all embraced modernity as their principal objective Most of these regimes failed to create the promised better lives their citizens desired Moreover ordinary Muslims felt despair as modernity ripped apart families exposed youngsters to the materialism and hedonism of Western entertainments heightened social expectations and undermined religious belief Even though tradition has proved itself incapable of staving off modernity the promises and premises of modern development literature have been called into question Where is the truth around which Muslims can rally Does modernity require a rejection of tradition Does the embrace of Islamic ideas necessitate turning away from modernity Robert D Lee explores these compelling questions by presenting four contemporary Muslim writers Muhammad Iqbal Sayyid Qutb Ali Shari ati and Mohammed Arkoun all of whom have refused to bow to such a dichotomy of modernity and tradition This study examines their efforts deeply influenced by European thinking to find a truth beyond tradition and modernity an authentic understanding of Islam upon which Muslims can build a future All four thinkers believe such an authentic understanding can serve as the foundation for a new politics Lee argues however that each of these versions of authenticity suffers shortcomings and falters in its efforts to move from the particularity of culture onto a grander scale of political organization appropriate for the modern world
