environment Great Britain: Royal Commission on Environmental Pollution,2007-03-06 This Report from the Royal Commission on Environmental Pollution examines the environmental footprint of our towns and cities in the light of the government's Regional Spatial Strategies and the Sustainable Communities Plan which will usher in a building boom that will shape the UK's built environment for centuries to come The Report looks at the current context with particular attention to urban expansion and regeneration The Royal Commission also looks at environmental issues including tackling carbon dioxide emissions from urban areas the role of the environment in health and wellbeing maximising community benefits of the natural environment and creating green infrastructure the framework right seeing a specific need for public policy to promote the environmental component of sustainable development and incentives and information to raise environmental standards over time environmental sustainability Organic Vegetable Growing Robert Milne,2010-05-28 Growing your own organic vegetables will give you fresher tastier and more nutritious produce with no food miles fossil fuel use or packaging and will provide you with the simple but enormous pleasure and satisfaction of supplying at least part of your own food requirements This authoritative book provides detailed practical guidance for those who wish to make the most of their time and whatever area of ground is available to grow vegetables the organic way It looks forward to productive gardening becoming increasingly relevant and necessary as we are obliged to adapt to global trends including climate change and diminishing oil resources that will adversely affect food production The techniques described are applicable to any scale of gardening and are based on the author's thirty years of organic gardening experience including twenty years of self-sufficiency and eight as a professional gardener growing vegetables and fruit in walled gardens Water and the City Iain White, 2013-03-01 As a vital human need water has been absolutely critical to decisions as to where cities originate how much they grow and the standard of living of the inhabitants The relationship is complex however we need both continual availability and protection from its potential impacts Over recent decades flooding and scarcity episodes have become commonplace in even the most advanced countries and these events cannot be disassociated from the socio-economic context within which they occur being directly related to how we live where we live and how we govern This book draws together information on a host of connected subjects from population growth to water scarcity to the relationship between humanity and nature then demonstrates how utilizing notions of risk and resilience could help improve the relationship between the city and its most precious resource Combining discussions of risk water and spatial planning it provides an invaluable text for planning geography and urban studies students on how to address urban water problems within a rapidly changing world

The Loudons and the Gardening Press Sarah Dewis, 2016-03-03 Through close readings of individual serials and books and archival work on the publication history of the Gardener's Magazine 1826-44 Sarah Dewis examines the significant contributions John and Jane Webb Loudon made to the gardening press and democratic discourse Vilified during their lifetimes by some sections of the press the Loudons were key players in the democratization of print media and the development of the printed image Both offered women readers a cultural alternative to the predominantly literary and classical culture of the educated English elite In addition they were innovative in emphasizing the value of scientific knowledge and the acquisition of taste as a means of eroding class difference As well as the Gardener's Magazine Dewis focuses on the lavish eight volume Arboretum et Fruticetum Britannicum 1838 an encyclopaedia of trees and shrubs and On the Laying Out Planting and Managing of Cemeteries 1843 arguing that John Loudon was a radical activist who reconfigured gardens in the public sphere as a landscape of enlightenment and as a means of social cohesion Her book is important in placing the Loudons' publications in the context of the history of the book media history garden history urban social history history of education nineteenth-century radicalism and women's journalism Digging for Victory Joanna Wise, 2018-05-15 Horticultural Therapy is ideally suited to engage veterans alienated from traditional civilian healthcare routes who present with a range of complex and challenging healthcare needs It presents on the surface as a deceptively simple and accessible activity Carried out by trained professionals it is an evidence-based effective and cost-effective treatment By targeting specific client-centred goals it is able to integrate improved individual physical emotional cognitive and social outcomes with broader opportunities to transition successfully into civilian society through learning a valuable skill set and a meaningful occupation This book provides a comprehensive introduction to the methods of Horticultural Therapy as applied to this unique client group It describes the type of combat training and experiences veterans may have had and sets out the common issues and pitfalls civilian therapists often face when working with the military Looking to the future it also identifies promising avenues in terms of how we may improve the treatment we offer to best serve the needs of these ex service men and women who fight on our behalf

Ornamental Geophytes Rina Kamenetsky, Hiroshi Okubo, 2012-09-17 Although a great deal of research on ornamental geophytes has been conducted since the beginning of the 1990s current information has not been comprehensively presented to researchers and horticulturalists Covering the latest advances in geophytes science Ornamental Geophytes From Basic Science to Sustainable Production provides up to date reviews on geophyte taxonomy physiology genetics production plant protection and postharvest biology Novel approaches to environmentally friendly sustainable production and integrated management have stimulated new research directions and innovative biochemical and molecular methods have opened new avenues in taxonomy and breeding In addition to the issues historically associated with traditionally growing countries the book reviews the development of new production centers in Africa Asia and South America In 20 chapters this book reflects three main trends in plant science and horticulture A demand for sustainable and environmentally friendly production Widespread employment of new molecular technologies The globalization of the production and marketing chains Thoroughly modern and in tune with the needs and methods of the geophytes industry Ornamental Geophytes From Basic Science to Sustainable Production will benefit not only researchers who have been engaged for years but also new researchers and students who must meet and challenge the existing dogmas In addition the information contained in this book is vital to bringing the value of flower bulbs to the worldwide consumers who are the most important and last links in the chain of utilization and profitability of all ornamental products Border Visions Jakub

Kazecki, Karen A. Ritzenhoff, Cynthia J. Miller, 2013-06-13 Over the last several decades the boundaries of languages and national and ethnic identities have been shifting altering the notion of borders around the world Borderland areas such as East and West Europe the US Mexican frontera and the Middle East serve as places of cultural transfer and exchange as well as arenas of violent conflict and segregation As communities around the world merge across national borders new multi ethnic and multicultural countries have become ever more common Border Visions Identity and Diaspora in Film offers an overview of global cinema that addresses borders as spaces of hybridity and change In this collection of essays contributors examine how cinema portrays conceptions of borderlands informed by knowledge politics art memory and lived experience and how these constructions contribute to a changing global community These essays analyze a variety of international feature films and documentaries that focus on the lives cultures and politics of borderlands The essays discuss the ways in which conflicts and their resolutions occur in borderlands and how they are portrayed on film The volume pays special attention to contemporary Europe where the topic of shifting border identities is one of the main driving forces in the processes of European unification Among the filmmakers whose work is discussed in this volume are Fatih Akin Montxo Armend riz Cary Fukunaga Christoph Hochh usler Holger Jancke Emir Kusturica Laila Pakalnina Alex Rivera Larissa Shepitko Andrea Staka Elia Suleiman and Istv n Szab A significant contribution to the dialogue on global cinema Border Visions will be of interest to students and scholars of film but also to scholars in border studies gender studies sociology and political science Nature Displaced, Nature Displayed Nuala C. Johnson, 2011-04-29 Botanical gardens brought together in a single space the great diversity of the earth s flora They displaced nature from forest and foothill and re arranged it to reveal something of the scientific principles underpinning the apparent chaos of the wild Nature Displaced Nature Displayed shows how the design and display of such gardens was not determined by scientific principles alone Through a study of three botanical gardens belonging to the University of Cambridge the Royal Dublin Society and the

Belfast Natural History Society the author shows how the final outcome involved a complex interplay of ideas about place identity empire botanical science and especially aesthetics creating spaces that would educate the mind as well as please the senses This highly engaging book offers a wealth of fresh insights into both the history and development of botanical gardens as well as connections between science and aesthetics The Horticulturist ,2010 Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,2007
