Strategy East of Suez, 1900-2000 Greg Kennedy, 2004-11-18 Britain's strategic position east of Suez in the twentieth century was a dominant area of interest and had an enormous impact in the overall construction of Great Britain's naval strategic posture Buildings of Empire Ashley Jackson, 2013-11-28 Buildings of Empire takes the reader on an exciting journey through thirteen territories of the British Empire From Dublin Castle to the glass and steel of Sir Norman Foster's Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank skyscraper these buildings capture the essence of the imperial experience painting an intimate portrait of the biggest empire the world has ever seen the people who made it and the people who resisted it as well as the legacy of the imperial project throughout the world Ashley Jackson visits classic examples of the buildings that the British governed from the forts they often brutally imposed their rule from the railway stations they travelled from the banks

they traded from the educational establishments they spread their values from as well as the grand colonial hotels they stayed in the sporting clubs and botanical gardens where they took their leisure and the monumental exhibition spaces in which they celebrated the achievements of settlement and imperial endeavour The history of these buildings does not end with the empire that built them Their story in the aftermath of empire highlights the continuing legacy of many of the structures and institutions the British left behind as well as the sometimes unexpected role that these former symbols of alien rule have played in the establishment of new national identities in the years since independence Ships Monthly ,2004

Naval Warfare 1919-45 Malcolm H. Murfett,2008-11-04 Naval Warfare 1919 45 is a comprehensive history of the war at sea from the end of the Great War to the end of World War Two Showing the bewildering nature and complexity of the war facing those charged with fighting it around the world this book ranges far and wide sweeping across all naval theatres and those powers performing major as well as minor roles within them Armed with the latest material from an extensive set of sources Malcolm H Murfett has written an absorbing as well as a comprehensive reference work He demonstrates that superior equipment and the best intelligence ominous power and systematic planning vast finance and suitable training are often simply not enough in themselves to guarantee the successful outcome of a particular encounter at sea Sometimes the narrow difference between victory and defeat hinges on those infinite variables the individual s performance under acute pressure and sheer luck Naval Warfare 1919 45 is an analytical and interpretive study which is an accessible and fascinating read both for students and for interested members of the general public Sea Breezes ,2003 Suid-Afrika se
