Epstein, 2009 This volume is a collection of essays based on papers given at the Nordic Translation Conference which took place in London in March 2008 The purpose of the collection is twofold First it serves to place the Nordic languages firmly into the field of translation studies where hitherto little research has focused on the Nordic region the essays include many Nordic specific studies and ideas

Second the book presents research and conclusions which are relevant to translation studies in all languages and cultures Therefore this volume which covers a wide range of Nordic languages and both literary and non literary topics is unambiguously pertinent to the Nordic countries while also being universally valuable Borrowed Words Philip Durkin, 2014 This book shows how when and why English took words from other languages and explains how to find their origins and reasons for adoption It covers the effects of contact with languages ranging from Latin and French to Yiddish Chinese and Maori from Saxon times to the present It will appeal to everyone interested in the history of English A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles James Augustus Henry Murray, Sir William Alexander Craigie, Charles Talbut Onions, 1919
