Lloyd Owen, 1980 Here at last is the full story of perhaps the most renowned and effective of those sometimes odd but always inspired formations born out of the desert during the Second World War The author was in the Long Range Desert Group for most of its existence and commanded the unit from 1943 till its disbandment in 1945 He covers not only the justly famed activities of the group in the deserts of North Africa but also for the first time its later operations in the Aegean Italy and different parts of the Balkans Yugoslavia and Albania particularly where its adventures were appropriately colourful and often bizarre Throughout his account he describes and illustrates with hitherto unpublished photographs many of the personalities British New Zealanders and Rhodesians who contributed so much to the LRDG's character and success Inside front cover The Long Range Desert Group, 1940-1945 David Lloyd-Owen, 2009-05-29 A very engaging and fine tribute to a small band of men whose impact on the North African campaign in particular was quite immense Pegasus Archive This splendid record takes the reader behind enemy lines not only in North Africa but in Italy the Aegean and the Balkans The author who commanded the LRDG paints a vivid picture of the unit's colorful characters for example Ralph Bagnold who put to good use the knowledge

he gained from his pre war desert travels The LRDG was truly international with New Zealanders and Rhodesians playing key roles This classic book won acclaim from the critics on its first publication by virtue of the author s unique knowledge experience and narrative skills This superb account written by one of their former commanders examines the formation of the unit the very diverse personalities which shaped it the North African operations and their subsequent role in Italy and the Balkans Filled with detailed descriptions of individual operations and the remarkable characters who carried them out Pegasus Archive
