Longitudinal Research In Alcoholism:

Longitudinal Research in Alcoholism K.T. van Dusen, Donald W. Goodwin, Sarnoff A. Mednick, 2012-12-06 Alcohol Use Across the Life Course Kaye Middleton Fillmore, Ontario. Addiction Research Foundation, 1988 The World Health Organization commissioned this review of longitudinal studies of drinking patterns and alcohol related problems to evaluate the contributions, needs and limitations of longitudinal research. The review also develops guidelines and recommendations for future longitudinal studies of human alcohol use in different regions of the world. In addition, it identifies the lack of cross study comparison to epidemiological description and demonstrates ways in which individual longitudinal studies can contribute to epidemiological description across historical periods, cultures and age cohorts. It then examines three diverse explanations of longitudinal drinking patterns and problems from the perspectives of biology, sociology and psychology, addressing how concretely replicated they are and how they are confounded by methodological problems. Finally, it develops strategies for future research.

Quality of Life in Alcohol Dependents John Foster, 2007 There has been a paucity of studies that have investigated the quality of life (QoL) of alcohol dependent individuals. Intuitively, because there are deleterious physical and psychological health consequences resulting from alcohol consumption, it is possible to put forward the hypothesis that not relapsing to heavy drinking will result in an improved QoL and in contrast that the consequences of relapsing to heavy drinking will be a deterioration in QoL. The present book tests this hypothesis and also seeks to ascertain those variables that are predictors of outcome. In addition, it examines the role played by sociodemographic and other confounding factors in the QoL of alcohol dependent individuals.

Research Advances in Alcohol and Drug Problems H.M. Annis, H.D. Cappell, F.B. Glaser, M.S. Goodstadt, L.T. Kozlowski, 2013-11-11 This is the tenth volume in the Research Advances series and the seventh published by Plenum Press. Volume 10 is another omnibus volume providing specialized and advanced reviews in a number of areas related to the use of alcohol, illicit drugs and tobacco. We include also a brief history of the Center for Alcohol Studies that gives Mark Keller's unique perspective on this noted institution. Two of the chapters are decidedly longer than the others; very long chapters have appeared occasionally in the past and we think that it is one of the strengths of the series that we are able to accommodate such reviews. Again, the editorial board has changed. After several years of service, Reginald G. Smart has stepped down. New to the board are Helen M. Annis, Michael S. Goodstadt, Lynn T. Kozlowski and Evelyn R. Vingilis. This is likely to be the sole volume for which Goodstadt is on the board since before completion of this volume he moved from the Addiction Research Foundation to the Center for Alcohol Studies, Rutgers University.
