Transforming Spirit Bodies Sinah Theres Kloß, Lena Muders, Taynã Tagliati, 2025-03-17 Transforming Spirit Bodies is an edited volume that focuses on the bodies and embodiments of spirits their im materialities and their bodily transformations The anthropological sociological and archaeological contributions draw attention to the embodied experiences of asymmetrical dependencies among humans and spirits and how experiences of inter dependence are negotiated in their interactions Suggesting that more than human entities significantly contribute to agency in social interactions and power negotiations the volume further highlights the ambivalent yet undeniable relationship between spirits and materiality During the processes of materialization and dematerialization in which spirit bodies transform and are transformed more than human entities may share substances and agency with humans Not only having material but also social dimensions these dynamics are influenced by relations of power and dependency Following posthumanist approaches this volume therefore challenges the anthropocentric views that continue to dominate scholarly analysis of power relations dependency and coercion The Vernacular Spirit R. Blumenfeld-Kosinski, N. Warren, D. Robertson, 2002-06-28 The late medieval movement into vernacular theology as it has come to be called inspired many forms of literary expression in all the languages of Europe Spanning a wide field the contributors to this volume consider hagiography translations of and commentaries on scripture accounts of visionary experiences and devotional literature Their essays illuminate encounters with the divine mediated through language bringing into play a diversity of national cultures and disciplinary points of view They also engage vital social and political issues connected with religious experience including challenges to authority reinterpretations of texts and renegotiations of gender roles The Spirit and the Church J. Isaac Goff, Christiaan W. Kappes, Edward J.

Ondrako, 2018-10-01 The Spirit and the Church celebrates the life and legacy of Peter Damian Fehlner OFM Conv who for the past six decades has carried the torch of the Franciscan theological and philosophical vision in the fields of ecclesiology pneumatology Mariology and anthropology Articles by colleagues former students and associates fall into three broad categories corresponding with several of the main areas in which Fehlner has made a longstanding scholarly contribution the Church's Magisterium and development of doctrine anthropology comma and creation the relation between Mariology pneumatology and ecclesiology and scholarly seeds planted by Fehlner now being cultivated and harvested by younger scholars All of the essays in this volume engage with Fehlner evaluate his contributions and build upon and expand in new directions the contributions of our honoree The essays in this volume manifest the contemporary relevance of Fehlner's Franciscan vision in terms of his invitation to renew the theology of the Church in a Marian mode in the light of Vatican II
