Lost and Found in London Kathleen O'Hara, 2011-08-17 Kathleen was lost in London now she's about to be found. Her stay has been rich and exciting: museums, galleries, influential people, Romantic trips with a new lover. But UK authorities say it's time to go. It's not their problem; she doesn't want to leave and has no idea what to do next. Fortunately, the right person comes along. At his cosy Wimbledon home, aka the Railway Tracks Hotel, Chris puts Kathleen through a unique series of exercises that enable her to identify who she is, the life she wants, and how to get it. Back in Canada, she realizes her dream to write a book that will inspire readers in the same powerful way Chris inspired her. This is it. Exercises too. But Lost and Found in London isn't just about personal challenges. It also deals with key issues confronting our planet, as few books dare to do. It's a timely, thought-provoking and fun guide for these uncertain times that could potentially change your life. Order Now. Buy the Book. Lost in Ireland Cindy Callaghan, 2016-03 Previously published in 2014 as Lucky me Lost in Love Michelle Reid, 2012-07-16 Somewhere Between Heaven and Hell Four years ago Guy Frabosa had hurt Marnie so deeply that she vowed never to set eyes on him again and had divorced him in a blaze of pain and anger. He fought her but she'd had a trump card and had been desperate enough to use it. Now Guy held all the cards Marnie needed: his financial help and had little choice but to play by her ex-husband's rules. He demanded her body and soul but the thought of returning to his side as his wife filled her with a raging hatred made all the more consuming by her utterly wanton desire for his lovemaking. Lost in Shadow Jocelyn Kelley, 2007 When a ghost reveals that he was murdered by Lord Bannatyne and demands that she travel to London to protect his beloved Jade Nethercott must decide whether to heed the ghost's warning or follow her heart when Lord Bannatyne comes to her rescue. Original Lost Books and Printing in London, 1557-1640 Alexandra Hill, 2018-04-17 Lost Books and Printing in London 1557-1640 is the first attempt to analyse systematically the entries relating to lost books in the Stationers Company Register. Books played a fundamental role in early modern society and are key sources for our comprehension of the political, religious, economic and cultural aspects of the age. Over time, the loss of these books has presented a significant barrier to our understanding of the past. The monopoly of the Stationers Company centralised book production in England to London, with printing jobs carried out by members documented in a Register. Using modern digital approaches to bibliography Alexandra Hill uses the Register to reclaim knowledge of the English book trade and print culture that would otherwise be lost

Lost in Transition Yiu-Wai Chu,2013-05-13 In this timely and insightful book Yiu Wai Chu takes stock of Hong Kong's culture since its transition to a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China in 1997 Hong Kong had long functioned as the capitalist and democratic stepping stone to China for much of the world Its highly original popular culture was well known in Chinese communities and its renowned film industry enjoyed worldwide audiences and far reaching artistic influence Chu argues that Hong Kong's culture was lost in transition when it tried to affirm its international visibility and retain the status quo after 1997 In an era when China welcomed outsiders and became the world's most rapidly developing economy Hong Kong's special position as a capitalist outpost was no longer a privilege By drawing on various cultural discourses such as film popular music and politics of everyday life Chu provides an informative and critical analysis of the impact of China's ascendancy on the notion of One Country Two Cultures Hong Kong can no longer function as a bridge between China and the world writes Chu and must now define itself from global local and national perspectives
