The Priesthood, Mystery of Faith Nilson Leal de Sa, CB, Nilson Leal de Sá, 2022-05-27 After almost twenty seven years of his pontificate what was John Paul II's legacy regarding the ministerial priesthood What answers did he give to the questions still surrounding this reality today Nilson Leal de S CB examines the pontiff's twenty seven letters of Holy Thursday addressed annually to the priests Unlike some papal documents which are drafted by many hands these letters to priests were born of a personal initiative wherein the pope spoke ab imo pectore from the depths of his heart giving a little of himself and his thought Cardinal Georges Marie Cottier theologian emeritus of the Pontifical House and a connoisseur of the texts of the Holy Father has confirmed that the Letters of Holy Thursday were written by John Paul II himself Leal de S has sought in the diversity of the letters of Holy Thursday the major points of the thought of John Paul II on this important topic The first chapter dwells on the sources of his teaching and emphasizes his use of the Word of God Tradition and the conciliar Magisterium These foundations are the basis of the second chapter which highlights the priestly identity in the life of the Church Finally the third chapter elucidates the specific mission of the priest The Priesthood Mystery of Faith presents itself as a real and stimulating synthesis of John Paul II's thought about the ministerial priesthood in a systematic way It renews us in the appreciation of the inestimable gift that God makes

What if the way we worship isn't just an expression of our faith but is what shapes our faith The Church has believed this about the way we worship and pray together for centuries The way we worship becomes the way we believe But if this is true it's time to take a closer look at what we say and sing and do each week Drawing from his own discovery of ancient worship practices Glenn Packiam helps us understand why the Church made creedal proclamations and Psalm praying a regular part of their worship He shares about why the Eucharist was the climactic point of their corporate re-telling of the salvation story When our worship becomes a rich feast our faith is nourished and no longer anemic The more our worship speaks of Christ the more we enter into the mystery of faith The Mystery of Faith Kenelm Best,2013-05-09 A few words may be permitted in explanation of the title chosen for this little Eucharistic Eulogy Commenting on St Paul's words Holding the Mystery of faith in a pure conscience J 1 Tim iii 9 Estius says that Catharinus considers them to have reference to the Holy Eucharist and to allude to the chalice of the Precious Blood which the deacons at Mass presented to the faithful Hessels on the same Epistle shares the view of Catharinus The words MYSTERIUM FIDEI are part of the Form of Consecration in the Missal and this favours the opinion of Catharinus and Hessels especially when we take into account the reasons for their presence in the Canon given by Pope Innocent III Bona Bellarmine and others Innocent III writes in answer to John Archbishop of Lyons Since the Evangelists do not testify that Christ said this Mysterium Fidei you are not a little disturbed and wonder that anyone should try to maintain that He said more than any of the Evangelists assert But if you will diligently inspect the form of the Canon besides this which you inquire about you will find two other insertions in the Canon viz Elevatis oculis in coelum and Aeterni Testamenti which are not read in the text of the Gospel Forsooth we find many things omitted by the Evangelist about Our Lord s words and actions which the Apostles are recorded to have supplemented in words or expressed in acts Bellarmine writing of Kemnitz and other Lutherans says Fifthly they falsely assert that the words Novi et Aeterni Testamenti and Mysterium Fidei in the form of the consecration of the chalice are an addition for in the Gospel it is only Novi Testamenti I answer that according to Tradition St Peter added them to the form that they cannot be found fault with that they are most true and are gathered from the Scriptures For the Testament of Christ is Eternal and is thus distinguished from the Old Testament which was temporary Also that it cannot be doubted that the chalice of Our Lord s Blood is rightly called the Mystery of Faith since in no other thing is Faith more to be exercised and more frequently exercised than in this where it is contradicted by all the senses Barradas Tom IV Lib IV cap 14 maintains that these very words were spoken by Christ and were taught the Roman Church by St Peter For says Barradas if the words were not spoken by Christ the Church would by no means have added them to the words of consecration which all are words of Christ He quotes Salmeron in support of his view He gives an account of the opinion of St Thomas Aquinas taken from P 111 Q LXXVIII Art 3 ad nonum There in answer to the objection that no Evangelist gives these words the Saint explains that the Evangelists did not intend to give the forms of the Sacraments which in the primitive Church had to be concealed as Dionysius mentions but they intended to construct the history of Christ And the added Aeterni and Mysterium Fidei come from the tradition of the Lord made known to the Church by the Apostles as I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you 1 Cor xi 23 and Holding the Mystery of Faith 1 Tim iii 9 Observe that St Thomas also here sanctions the commentary application of St Paul s words to the Holy Eucharist Barradas does not seem to agree with the explanation of St Thomas which is not precisely his own as we have seen above But Scotus takes the Saint s view and supports it with the same arguments as those of St Thomas

Mysteries of Faith Mark McIntosh, 2000-01-25 In this volume of The New Church s Teaching Series Mark McIntosh introduces the great mysteries of the Christian faith the doctrines of creation revelation incarnation salvation and eschatology which are all held together by the doctrine of the Trinity To explain these beliefs for Christians today particularly the Trinity McIntosh begins with what we know the language of relationship and mutuality of friendship and family ties The central theme of the book is our relationship with Jesus and our relationship with our neighbor for such mutuality lies at the heart of every doctrine McIntosh s starting point is the fact that every one of us is a theologian for we are all drawn to approach the mysteries of faith with attention and love By drawing on our common experiences as members of a community of faith particularly through the sacraments of baptism and eucharist he helps us to explore these mysteries for ourselves and to see how we might live them in our daily lives As with each book in The New Church's Teaching Series recommended resources for further reading and questions for discussion are included The Eucharist Joseph M. Champlin, 2005 In The Eucharist popular writer and lecturer Joseph M Champlin explores the eucharistic mystery from three different perspectives first as sacrifice then as sacrament and finally as presence In addition to this he analyzes another mystery of faith the Paschal Passover or Easter Mystery of Christ's life death resurrection and return The book outlines several desirable inner qualities with which we greet the Risen Christ as our guest and describes ways in which the Eucharist can inspire us to serve others Each chapter begins with a personal reflection by a eucharistic minister and concludes with a brief related excerpt from the Catechism of the Catholic Church
