The Live Sea Scrolls Austin P. Torney, 2010-01-15 Glorious and illustrated sayings upon the human condition Ancient Irrigation Systems of the Aral Sea Area Boris V. Andrianov, 2013-12-31 Ancient Irrigation Systems in the Aral Sea Area is the English translation of Boris Vasilevich Andrianov's work Drevnie orositelnye sistemy priaralya concerning the study of ancient irrigation systems and the settlement pattern in the historical region of Khorezm south of the Aral Sea Uzbekistan This work holds a special place within the Soviet archaeological school because of the results obtained through a multidisciplinary approach combining aerial survey and fieldwork surveys and excavations This translation has been enriched by the addition of introductions written by several eminent scholars from the region regarding the importance of the Khorezm Archaeological Ethnographic Expedition and the figure of Boris V Andrianov and his landmark study almost 50 years after the original publication Earth and Sea Louis Figuier, 1870 The Mermaid, the Witch, and the Sea Maggie Tokuda-Hall, 2020-05-05 In a world divided by colonialism and threaded with magic a desperate orphan turned pirate and a rebellious imperial lady find a connection on the high seas Aboard the pirate ship Dove Flora the girl takes on the identity of Florian the man to earn the respect and protection of the crew For Flora former starving urchin the brutal life of a pirate is about survival don't trust don't stick out and don't feel But on this voyage Flora is drawn to the Lady Evelyn Hasegawa who is headed to an arranged marriage she dreads Flora doesn't expect to be taken under Evelyn's wing and Evelyn doesn't expect to find such a deep bond with the pirate Florian Neither expects to fall in love Soon the unlikely pair set in motion a wild escape that will free a captured mermaid coveted for her blood and involve the mysterious Pirate Supreme an opportunistic witch double agents and the all encompassing Sea herself Deftly entwining swashbuckling action and quiet magic Maggie Tokuda Hall's inventive debut novel conjures a diverse cast of characters seeking mastery over their fates while searching for answers to big questions about identity power and love The Restless Sea Robert Kunzig, 1999 The sea covers seven tenths of the Earth but we have mapped only a small percent of it The sea contains millions of species of animals and plants but we have identified only a few thousand of them The sea controls our planet's climate but we do not really understand how The sea is still the frontier and yet it seems so familiar that we sometimes forget how little we know about it Just as we are poised on the verge of exploiting the sea on an unprecedented scale mining it fertilizing it fishing it out this book reminds us of how much we have yet to learn More than that it chronicles the knowledge explosion that has transformed our view of the sea in just the past few decades and made it a far more interesting and accessible place Live From Jordan Benjamin ORBACH, 2007-04-30 On the eve of the U.S. invasion of Iraq Pittsburgh native and graduate student Ben Orbach traveled to the Middle East to experience the region first hand Despite having a degree in Middle Eastern studies he was completely unprepared for what he discovered Beyond the anti-American sentiment he expected he found a complex curious people whose lives were made even more difficult by an overwhelming feeling of powerlessness Live from

Jordan is the story told via his letters home of Orbach's one year trip through Egypt Jordan Syria Palestine and Turkey As he begins his unforgettable journey which takes him from bustling bazaars to underground brothels he meets all kinds of characters a falafel cook who hates Americans because they have no mercy a kindly baker who wishes him peace and blessings every time he buys pita bread and the curious impassioned 21 year old medical student with a penchant for debating U S foreign policy From the angry streets of Cairo to the living rooms of ordinary people in Jordan and Palestine Orbach offers an honest balanced portrait of a region in turmoil and the vivid misunderstood and often welcoming people who inhabit it With humor and wit he sheds new light on a culture that few Americans understand Engaging and evocative Live from Jordan is a myth breaking book that combines the lyricism of a travelogue with the insight of reportage

The Mediterranean: Seaports and Sea Routes Including Madeira, the Canary Islands, the Coast of Morocco, Algeria, and Tunisia Handbook for Travellers Karl Baedeker, 2020-09-28 Of all the Mediterranean regions Egypt alone offers a dry settled and genial climate in winter The traveller on the Eastern Mediterranean who wishes to avoid extremes of cold and heat should make his first stay at Cairo in January or February start for the Syrian coast at the end of February or early in March proceed to Palestine and Damascus after March has commenced and visit Asia Minor and Greece in April and Constantinople and the Black Sea in May In autumn from the end of September onwards the above order should be reversed Plan of Tour The traveller is advised to draw up a careful programme of his tour before starting All the places described in the Handbook may be reached by steamer or partly overland at any time of the year but during the winter season from about the end of October to the middle of May much greater facilities are offered by excursion steamers circular tickets and combined tickets American travellers may sail direct from New York or Boston to some of the Mediterranean ports Travellers from Great Britain may start from London Liverpool Southampton or Dover or if they dread a long sea voyage may proceed overland to Marseilles to Genoa to Naples to Brindisi to Venice or to Trieste and begin their Mediterranean tour from one of these points Some may prefer the overland route to Spain and Gibraltar while others again may find it more convenient to travel all the way to Constantinople Orient Express to Constantza Ostend Vienna Express or to Odessa vi Vienna and Cracow by railway and thence explore the Mediterranean from east to west The railway routes will be found in Bradshaw's Continental Railway Guide or in the German Reichskursbuch For the trains de luxe services tickets must be obtained from the International Sleeping Car Co London 20 Cockspur St S W Paris 3 Place de l Op ra New York 281 Fifth Ave Berlin 69 Unter den Linden For the sea routes see p xvii for particulars application should be made to the various companies or their handbooks consulted Excursion circular and combined tickets are issued by Messrs Thos Cook Son Ludgate Circus and by other tourist agents It may be noted here that the pleasure cruises organized by many of the companies offer great attractions at moderate cost but at the almost entire sacrifice of personal independence while the fellow passengers with whom one is associated for weeks may not always be congenial As a general rule it is pleasanter and less expensive to travel with one or more companions than alone Apart from hotel charges and railway and steamboat fares the cost for two or three persons is often no greater than for one Moreover when off the beaten track the traveller thus escapes from monotonous and monosyllabic conversation with native guides or drivers and in case of illness or accident he is far more certain of obtaining assistance and relief The most useful language in most parts of the Mediterranean is French In Portugal Madeira and the Canary Islands English is much spoken in Egypt it is the leading language Italian is very useful in Tunisia on the coast of Tripolitania and Barca in Malta throughout the Levant in Greece and at Constantinople On the other hand a slight knowledge of Arabic will be found most useful throughout the whole of N Africa from Morocco to Egypt and in Palestine and Syria Some Hints on Health may be of advantage to the inexperienced traveller from the north As a rule an overcoat or extra wraps should be put on at sundown though they may often be dispensed with an hour or two later When heated with walking the traveller should not rest in the shade In hot climates like those of Egypt and the Sahara he should never remove his pith helmet or other headgear in the sun Grey spectacles or grey veils shield the eyes alike from the glare of the sun and from dust Sunshades also are very desirable in hot weather As a rule it is advisable to stay within doors during the heat of the day On the other hand many places on the Mediterranean are cold in winter Lower Egypt and Cairo being no exceptions Steamboat passengers too will generally find warm clothing very desirable between October and the middle of May An extra coat or shawl should be donned in museums churches mosques and other buildings with stone pavement as the air is often very chilly When engaging rooms visitors should insist on a southern aspect which is almost essential for the delicate and highly desirable for the robust In every case especially if the rooms do not face due south they should have a fireplace or else central heating In the Mediterranean regions where many of the plainer hotels have stone or brick floors carpets are essential to comfort
