Personal Prison Letters Or Mooning Over The Garden:

Personal Prison Letters Or Mooning Over the Garden Zuzana Karasova,2005-07-01 The book aims at creating an emotionally colored literature based on facts Consequently it consists of a Preface and three chapters A hundred short and very meaningful letters written by American the author s friend and lover Justin constitutes the major theme of the book Although Justin has been confined in a prison in an unmentioned place in the U S A he wouldn t mind her expressing a deep interest in the country where he actually lives and also his fellow citizens as well And the final solution he finds in an almost unreal model of a society without any prejudices But first and foremost the book is a great glorification of a love between a man and woman who are paradoxically able to enjoy the use of their five natural senses even under these very difficult circumstances
