Must Read: Rediscovering American Bestsellers Sarah Churchwell, Thomas Ruys Smith, 2012-08-02 What is it about certain books that makes them bestsellers Why do some of these books remain popular for centuries and others fade gently into obscurity And why is it that when scholars do turn their attention to bestsellers they seem only to be interested in the same handful of blockbusters when so many books that were once immensely popular remain under examined Addressing those and other equally pressing questions about popular literature Must Read is the first scholarly collection to offer both a survey of the evolution of American bestsellers as well as critical readings of some of the key texts that have shaped the American imagination since the nation's founding Focusing on a mix of enduring and forgotten bestsellers the essays in this collection consider 18th and 19th century works like Charlotte Temple or Ben Hur that were once considered epochal but are now virtually ignored 20th century favorites such as The Sheik and Peyton Place and 21st century blockbusters including the novels of Nicholas Sparks The Kite Runner and The Da Vinci Code

Edinburgh Companion to the Bible and the Arts Stephen Prickett, 2019-08-07 Examines the changing relationship between the Bible and the arts showing how the arts portray biblical stories in various ways and through various media and how the Bible is actually multiple entities fiercely contested translations in many languages Generously illustrated with examples including painting architecture and stained glass The Oxford Handbook of the Ancien Régime William Doyle, 2011-11-10 In The Oxford Handbook of the Ancien Régime an international team of thirty contributors survey and present current thinking about the world of pre revolutionary France and Europe The idea of the Ancien Régime was invented by the French revolutionaries to define what they hoped to destroy and replace But it was not a precise definition and although historians have found it conceptually useful there is wide disagreement about what the Ancien Régime's main features were how they worked how old they were how far they stretched how dynamic or inert they were and how far the revolutionaries succeeded in their ambitions to eradicate them In this wide ranging and authoritative collection old and newer areas of research into the Ancien Régime are presented and assessed and there has been no attempt to impose any sort of consensus The result shows what a lively field of historical enquiry the Ancien Régime remains and points the way towards a range of promising new directions for thinking and writing about the intriguing complex of historical problems which it continues to pose Colonial and Global Interfacings Gary Backhaus, 2009-03-26

How space is owned through practices of domination that emerged through colonialism and have been sustained through capitalist social relations in a post colonial context How Imperial power created in Foucault's words a boomerang effect whereby the techniques developed to control and subjugate colonial subjects worked with such efficiency that they were imported back into Western societies to create new orders of control How while new social movements such as the Zapatistas have remapped the rural and developed new ways to challenge and transform politics Western societies have sought to reconstruct the world order through economic processes and military strategy How the self image of the West is shaped by its relationship with the Rest but also how the Rest has found new ways of constructing identity that are now transforming the West as people images commodities and meanings flow through the global economy The cases considered cover every continent contrast the West with the East as well as the global North with the global South and prompt us to take history seriously in the construction of the present Addressing the current buzzwords that have spread from geography across the social sciences and the humanities this book will appeal to researchers and practitioners fascinated by the connections between cultural representation power spatiality and how the ways we have been thinking about the world are open to question

Make-Believe David Dickinson, 2020-01-30 I will tell you a story that will make you believe in God No story can guarantee being able to do this Yet novelists can tell stories that make us think about what we believe about God and why Despite repeated predictions of the death of the novel thousands of works of fiction are published and read in Britain each year Although Western society is less religiously observant than it was many 21st century novelists persist in pursuing theological religious and spiritual themes Make Believe seeks to explain why With chapters offering analyses of novels from several genres so called literary fiction historical fiction science fiction fantasy and dystopia David Dickinson discusses a wide spectrum of novelists Authors who are avowedly atheistic and authors who have a vested interest in perpetuating biblical

Sheehan,1989 Now available in paperback this is a uniquely authoritative study of Germany from the mid eighteenth century to the formation of the Bismarckian Reich James J Sheehan gives an extensive account of social and cultural as well as political developments and shows that the creation of a Prussian led nation state should not be seen as natural or inevitable He shows how German history in this period was shaped by three separable yet closely linked developments the rise of sovereign territorial states the expansion of economic activity and social mobility and the emergence of a literary culture
