James Meyer, James Sampson Meyer

Sculpture In Place:

Sculpture in Place Sarah A. Clark-Langager, 2002 The natural setting is breathtakingly beautiful but the artistic expression that is the campus the combination of art and architecture makes this a true jewel in a magnificent setting

Phenomenologies of Art and Vision Paul Crowther, 2013-01-03 Contemporary discussions of the image like to emphasize art's societal functions Few studies come close to answering why pictures and sculptures fascinate and intrigue regardless of any practical functions they might serve In this original thought provoking study Paul Crowther reveals the intrinsic significance of pictures and sculptures To address the question of how painting becomes an art Crowther uses the analytic philosophy of Richard Wollheim as a starting point But to sufficiently answer the question he makes an important link to a tradition much more successful in giving voice to the deeper ontology of visual art existential phenomenology The result is a work that demonstrates the reciprocal relationship between phenomenology and analytic aesthetics To expand its ontological scope and solve the problem of expression analytic aesthetics needs phenomenology while to develop a sustained critically balanced and intellectually available ontology phenomenology needs the discursive force and lucidity of analytic philosophy This convincing case for a post analytic phenomenology of art is an important advancement of contemporary discussions of the philosophy of art

The Sculptural Imagination Alex Potts, 2000-01-01 Potts also offers a detailed view of selected iconic works by sculptors ranging from Antonio Canova and Auguste Rodin to Constantin Brancusi David Smith Carl Andre Eva Hesse and Louise Bourgeois key players in modern thinking about the sculptural The impact of minimalism features prominently in this discussion for it disrupted accepted understanding of how a viewer interacts with a work of art thereby placing the phenomenology of viewing three dimensional objects for the first time at the center of debate about modern visual art Jacket

Cuts Carl Andre, 2021-08-03 Statements dialogue letters epigrams and poems by sculptor Carl Andre a central figure in minimalism Just as Carl Andre's sculptures are cuts of elemental materials his writings are condensed expressions cuts of language that emphasize the part rather than the whole Andre a central figure in minimalism and one of the most influential sculptors of our time does not produce the usual critical essay He has said that he is not a writer of prose and the texts included in Cuts the most comprehensive collection of his writings yet published appear in a wide variety of forms that are pithy and poetic rather than prosaic Some texts are statements many of them fifty words or less written for catalog entries and press releases Others are Socratic dialogues interwoven statements or in the form of questionnaires and interviews Still others are letters public and private lengthy missives and postcards Some are epigrams and maxims for example on Damian Hirst I DON'T FEAR HIS SHARK I FEAR HIS FORMALDEHYDE and some are planar poems words and letters arranged and rearranged into different patterns They are organized alphabetically by subject under such entries as Art and Capitalism Childhood Entropy After Smithsonian Matter My Work Other Artists and Poetry and they include Andre's reflections on Michelangelo and Duchamp on Stein and Marx and such contemporaries as Eva Hesse Robert Rauschenberg Robert

Morris and Damien Hirst Carl Andre's writing and its materiality its stress on the visual and tactile qualities of language takes its place beside his sculpture and its materiality its revelation of matter as matter rather than matter as symbol Both assert the ethical and political primacy of matter in a culture that prizes the replica the insubstantial and the virtual I am not an idealist as an artist says Andre I try to discover my visions in the conditions of the world It's the conditions which are important

Elemental Sculpture Todor Todorov, 2014-03-17 This book represents a research endeavour in the area of contemporary sculpture describing an unexplored tendency in the development of the relationship between sculpture and the natural elements referred to here as Elemental Sculpture The studies included in this book reveal the context of locations where this kind of sculpture may be found park urban landscape nature and discuss the impact of these places on the development of sculpture This book examines the tendency towards Elemental Sculpture as part of a new level of relationship between man and nature in arts and in general It presents in depth research of contemporary sculpture the roots of Elemental Sculpture and its development in the works of such well known sculptors as Barbara Hepworth Henry Moore Alexander Calder George Rickey and Susumu Shingu among others Sculptures created by the author in the area of Elemental Sculpture during 35 years of his professional career are included and described from theoretical and practical points of view

Heidegger and the Work of Art History Amanda Boetzkes, 2017-07-05 Heidegger and the Work of Art History explores the impact and future possibilities of Heidegger's philosophy for art history and visual culture in the twenty first century Scholars from the fields of art history visual and material studies design philosophy aesthetics and new media pursue diverse lines of thinking that have departed from Heidegger's work in order to foster compelling new accounts of works of art and their historicity This collected book of essays also shows how studies in the history and theory of the visual enrich our understanding of Heidegger's philosophy In addition to examining the philosopher's lively collaborations with art historians and how his longstanding engagement with the visual arts influenced his conceptualization of history the essays in this volume consider the ontological and ethical implications of our encounters with works of art the visual techniques that form worlds how to think about things beyond human centred relationships the moods dispositions and politics of art's history and the terms by which we might rethink aesthetic judgment and the interpretation of the visible world from the early modern period to the present day

Anglo-American Exchange in Postwar Sculpture, 1945-1975 Rebecca Peabody, 2011-12-31 Anglo American Exchange in Postwar Sculpture 1945 1975 redresses an important art historical oversight Histories of American and British sculpture are usually told separately with artists and their work divided by nationality yet such boundaries obscure a vibrant exchange of ideas individuals and aesthetic influences In reality the postwar art world saw dynamic interactions between British and American sculptors critics curators teachers and institutions Using works of art as points of departure this book explores the international movement of people objects and ideas demonstrating the importance of Anglo American exchange to the history of postwar sculpture
