Art and Agency in the Workshop examines the variety of workshops from those which are politically driven or tourist oriented to those based on historical patronage or allied to current artistic trends Fifteen lively essays explore the impact of the workshop on the production of artists such as Zimbabwean stone sculptors master potters from Cameroon wood carvers from Nigeria and others from across the continent Contributions by Nicolas Argenti Jessica Gershultz Norma Wolff Christine politics We may think we know what we mean when we use the term workshop but in fact the organization of groups of artists takes on vastly different forms and encourages the production of diverse styles of art within larger social structures and power dynamics Victoria Rovine University of Florida Taken as a whole the case studies provide a wide window into the very diverse structural and functional characteristics of workshops They also clearly describe how African workshops have
