Around One More Point Mary Gazetas, 2006 Around One More Point is a journal sketchbook of writings, photographs, and drawings that capture the adventures of B.C. artist and paddler Mary Gazetas, who has journeyed with family and friends on the west coast of Vancouver Island, the Inside Passage, and Haida Gwaii for almost 25 years. This work, with its powerful visual imagery, includes stories and art created when Mary first started taking ocean canoe trips in the 80s with her twin sister and her children. Since those pre-Gore-Tex days of primitive beach camping and paddling in all kinds of weather, the trips, the people, and the artwork have changed. What hasn't changed though is her passion for the character of the coast, and she returns every summer bringing home material to be transformed into a variety of artistic expressions. The journeys include paddle trips in Barkley Sound, Clayoquot, Nootka, and Kyuquot Sounds, the Broughton Archipelago, the central coast, and Haida Gwaii, the Queen Charlotte Islands. This evocative journal will take readers on a journey inspiring some to go to these beautiful places themselves to go around one more point.
