G. Wells, 2010-10-05 From the twentieth century s first great practitioner of the novel of ideas comes a consummate masterpiece of science fiction about a man trapped in the terror of his own creation A stranger emerges out of a freezing February day with a request for lodging in a cozy provincial inn Who is this out of season traveler More confounding is the thick mask of bandages obscuring his face Why is he disguised in such a manner What keeps him hidden in his room The villagers aroused by trepidation and curiosity bring it upon themselves to find the answers What they discover is not only a man trapped in the terror of his own creation but a chilling reflection of the unsolvable mysteries of their own souls My fantastic stories do not pretend to deal with possible things They aim indeed only at the same amount of conviction as one gets in a gripping good dream H G Wells With an Introduction by W Warren Wagar and an Afterword by Scott Westerfeld
