Search for Faith and Justice in the Twentieth Century Gene James, 1987 Search for Faith and Justice in the Twentieth Century Gene James, 1999-03-25 Religion and Social Justice S. Thakur, 1996-10-04 This book is a philosophical examination of the relationship between religion and social justice Its main thesis is that since the primary purpose of religion is the moral and spiritual transformation of human nature it ought not to be construed as a direct instrument of social justice on earth as it is by Liberation theologians for example as well as by many liberal Christians and Jews Indirectly however religion may well be a pre condition of social justice For it can be argued that without the counteracting effects of the moral and spiritual values prescribed by religion the liberal vision of individual rights and social justice may be self defeating Humanity is best served if this liberal vision is counterbalanced by the completely contrary utopia enshrined in the biblical idea of the kingdom of God and its equivalents in the other great religions of the world Black Faith and Public Talk Dwight N. Hopkins, 2007 When Cone wrote Black Theology and Black Power he signaled to the world that the American black faith tradition would no longer recognize the confines of the church walls as the extent of its purview in society Cone liberated the Gospel of Christ from its institutionalized forms unhinging it from oppressive and racist power structures in American society and releasing it to do its work in the public sphere Black Faith and Public Talk continues Cone s theme of power in the public realm and examines the economic political cultural gender and theological implications of black faith and black theology Educating for Faith and Justice Thomas P. Rausch, 2010-01-01 Catholic colleges and universities play a crucial role in handing on a rich faith tradition to young adults today As these institutions have become more professional and pluralistic many are asking how effective they are at carrying out the religious mission which is central to their identity Are Catholic colleges and universities significantly different from less expensive state institutions or from other private colleges and universities Are they still committed to the search for truth which is really the search for God Thomas Rausch an eminent educator is a Catholic priest long interested in Catholic theology as a work of the church not just of the academy He insists we must also ask of Catholic higher education today Does it truly form students in the faith that does justice or does it simply speed their passage into successful corporate lifestyles Does it help students come to a personal encounter with the divine mystery revealed in Jesus Keeping these questions before them Rausch and five other contributors to this volume provide wisdom insight and concrete examples of how Catholic higher education can indeed foster faith that leads to a more just world Thomas P Rausch SJ is the T Marie Chilton Professor of Catholic Theology at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles He is author of numerous books including I Believe in God A Reflection on the Apostles Creed Being Catholic in a Culture of Choice and Towards a Truly Catholic Church Liturgical Press The Mind and Faith of Justice Holmes Max Lerner, 2017-09-29 A reprint of the Little Brown edition of 1943 Acidic paper Annotation copyright Book News Inc Portland Or Criminal Justice: Firearms - Race riots in the twentieth century Phyllis B. The Role of Religion in Struggles for Global Justice Peter J. Smith,Katharina Glaab,Claudia Baumgart-Ochse,Elizabeth Smythe,2019-10-23 Struggles for global justice are being fought by civil society groups across the globe addressing global inequalities challenging neoliberal market driven globalization and demanding to remedy its negative implications This book examines the roles religious communities and organizations in particular play in the struggles for global justice roles too often ignored by scholars of the Global Justice Movement GJM It has two central themes the role religion and religious actors play in global justice struggles and the idea that justice is a contested concept among both religious and secular actors which requires some sort of faith from its proponents These chapters transcend simplistic either or binaries highlighting the difficulties of clearly distinguishing between religious and secular progressive and conservative or rational and irrational motives and norms in struggles for justice Challenging the secularization paradigm that marginalizes the role religious actors play in public life these chapters show how these actors engage with a broad range of justice issues how deeply contested justice is and how its meaning may vary and change among religious actors as a result of the social or political context within which an injustice is encountered The chapters originally published as a special issue in Globalizations
