Search For Reality The Art Of Documentary Filmmaking:

The Search for "reality" Michael Tobias, 1998 This ambitious book from author producer and director Michael Tobias draws together the voices of 40 renowned documentary filmmakers from around the world These contributors shed unique light on contemporary culture and aesthetics the filmmaker's commitment to the documentary form and the documentary production process from concept to marketplace They also probe provocative questions What is reality in a documentary Can and should there be objectivity in a documentary What is the role of social advocacy in a documentary How do new production technologies affect a documentary's message This is the first book that brings together an international roster of documentary filmmakers to speak about the very heart and soul of their art It should prove to be an invaluable guide for both professionals and students and will appeal to general filmgoers as well

American Documentary Filmmaking in the Digital Age Lucia Ricciardelli, 2014-11-20 American Documentary Filmmaking in the Digital Age examines the recent challenges to the conventions of realist documentary through the lens of war documentary films by Ken Burns Michael Moore and Errol Morris During the twentieth century the invention of new technologies of audiovisual representation such as cinema television video and digital media have transformed the modes of historical narration and with it forced historians to assess the impact of new visual technologies on the construction of history This book investigates the manner in which this contemporary Western crisis in historical narrative is produced by a larger epistemological shift in visual culture Ricciardelli uses the theme of war as depicted in these directors' films to focus her study and look at the models of national identity that Burns Morris and Moore shape through their depictions of US military actions She examines how postcolonial critiques of historicism and the advent of digitization have affected the narrative structure of documentary film and the shaping of historical consciousness through cinematic representation

The Documentary Makers David A. Goldsmith, 2003 A series of in their own words interviews with 15 directors whose work has in some way extended the boundary of the documentary They constitute a tiny proportion of those working in the field but they represent the state of the documentary across the world from the limited resources of China's only independent director with no access to his nation's television to the big budget series that attract tens of millions of American viewers Some will only work on film with all its paraphernalia of moviemaking while others insist on working alone with nothing more than a Handicam Some question even abhor the use of commentary others wouldn't dream of doing without Some work by the rules of cinema verite and some use dramatization while still labeling their work documentary Regardless of the where and the how they all seek to reproduce reality whatever that might be Book jacket

Documentaries Andy Glynne, 2008-03-01 Currently one of the most popular film and TV genres due to the success of Michael Moore's Supersize Me and March of the Penguins documentaries and the process of creating them are subjected to scrutiny in this guide which comes with a bonus DVD featuring three award winning documentaries discussed as case studies Fans of the genre will enjoy a history of the art form and interviews with industry

insiders and award winning filmmakers who contribute their tips tricks and advice Aspiring filmmakers will find advice covering the whole production process from developing a concept to marketing and distribution Details on the full range of current film festivals are also included

D.A. Pennebaker Keith Beattie, 2011-10-15 This volume is the first book length study of the extensive career and prolific works of D A Pennebaker one of the pioneers of direct cinema a documentary form that emphasizes observation and a straightforward portrayal of events With a career spanning decades Pennebaker s many projects have included avant garde experiments Daybreak Express ground breaking television documentaries Primary celebrity films Dont Look Back concert films Monterey Pop and innovative fusions of documentary and fiction Maidstone Exploring the concept of performing the real Keith Beattie interprets Pennebaker s films as performances in which the act of filming is in itself a performative transgression of the norms of purely observational documentary He examines the ways in which Pennebaker s presentation of unscripted everyday performances is informed by connections between documentary filmmaking and other experimental movements such as the New American Cinema Through his collaborations with such various artists as Richard Leacock Shirley Clarke Norman Mailer and Jean Luc Godard Pennebaker has continually reworked and redefined the forms of documentary filmmaking This book also includes a recent interview with the director and a full filmography

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
