Metaphors in the Discussion on Suffering in Job 3-31 Hanneke van Loon,2018-09-11 In Metaphors in the Discussion on Suffering in Job 3-31 Hanneke van Loon offers a new approach to the theme of suffering in the book of Job Her analysis of metaphors demonstrates that Job goes through different stages of existential suffering in chapters 3-14 and that he addresses the social dimension of his suffering in chapters 17 and 19 Van Loon claims that Job s existential suffering ends in 19:25 and that chapters 23-31 reflect a process in which Job translates his own experience into a call upon the audience to adopt a new attitude toward the unfortunate ones in society The theoretical approach to metaphors is based on insights from cognitive linguistics

In Search of Lost Futures Magdalena Kazubowski-Houston, Mark Auslander, 2021-02-16 In Search of Lost Futures asks how imaginations might be activated through practices of autoethnography multimodality and deep interdisciplinarity each of which has the power to break down methodological silos cultivate novel research sensibilities and inspire researchers to question what is known about ethnographic process representation reflexivity audience and intervention within and beyond the academy By blurring the boundaries between the past present and future between absence and presence between the possible and the impossible and between fantasy and reality In Search of Lost Futures pushes the boundaries of ethnographic engagement It reveals how researchers on the cutting edge of the discipline are studying absence and grief and employing street performance museum exhibit anticipation or simulated reality to research and intervene in the possible the impossible and the uncertain

The Trinity Unveiled Cass Bernard, 2021-08-03 Most Churches teach that God Jesus and the Holy Spirit are equal beings and somehow the same God They themselves admit It is a mystery beyond our comprehension Still however they want us as followers to accept this belief with faith despite the fact they cannot explain it Because of this and the lack of support from the scriptures do we not have every right to question it Do the scriptures show there is a three in one God Jesus said at John 6 38 NIV bolding added for emphasis For I have come down from heaven not to do my will but to do the will of him who sent me This scripture describes two wills If there are two wills then there must be two beings If one sends the other then one is evidently in charge which means they cannot be the same or equal Many other scriptures concur such as 1 Corinthians 11 3 NIV that reads the head of Christ is God The book highlights the scriptures used for support of this doctrine and includes the contexts that surround those same verses to show that the Bible does not teach a triune type of God anywhere This book offers over one hundred scriptures that combine to prove the falseness of the teaching of the Trinity Besides more than enough scriptural evidence the book also brings into focus how other Bible versions render those same Trinity scriptures and dives into the history of this doctrine When these things are all exposed the Trinity fails to deliver as truth
