Three Families from the Orphan Trains

A black and white illustration of two children and a dog. On the left, a young girl with short hair stands wearing a dark, patterned jacket. In the center, a small dog is lying down. On the right, a young boy with dark hair stands wearing a light-colored shirt and dark overalls, holding a rope. In the background, there is a two-story house with a porch and some bushes. A large red circle is positioned behind the title 'Home' and the house.

Searching for Home Martha Nelson Vogt, Christina Vogt, 1979-09-01     A History of Children's Play and Play Environments Joe L. Frost, 2010-04-02 This book explores the history of children's play and play environments informing where we are today and why we need to re-establish play as a priority Ultimately the author proposes active solutions to the current state of play deprivation     Searching for You (Orphan Train Book #3) Jody Hedlund, 2018-12-04 Despite years on the run Sophie Neumann is determined to care for two young children She won't abandon them the way she thinks her older sisters abandoned her But times are growing desperate and when she falls in with the wrong crowd and witnesses a crime she realizes fleeing 1850s New York is her only option Disappearing with her two young charges into a group of orphans heading west by train Sophie hopes to find safety and a happy life When the train stops in Illinois for the first placement of orphans Sophie faces the most difficult choice of her life Reinhold Weiss has finally purchased his own small farm With mounting debts a harvest to bring in and past scars that haunt him he's in no position to give his heart away but can he say no when his long lost friend shows up on a nearby train pleading for his help     Chosen Children Lori Carangelo, 2002     Youth, Crime, and Justice Erika Gebo, Carolyn Boyes-Watson, 2017-09-28 This is a comprehensive introduction to youth crime and justice through a unique case study approach Taking a life course perspective the book examines the changing landscapes of childhood and the justice system with an intersectional focus     Reading & Writing Sourcebooks, Grade 4 Ruth Nathan, Laura Robb, 2001-05-23 The Teacher's Guide for each level supports each selection with a comprehensive skills and strategies overview detailed background information and teaching tips for the selection suggested discussion questions and strategies for engaging students vocabulary development prereading and more blackline masters on word work prereading vocabulary comprehension prewriting and assessment a Strategy Handbook explaining key before during and after reading strategies     Books Kids Will Sit Still For 3: A Read-Aloud Guide Judy Freeman, 2006-04-30 A guide to captivating read alouds for grades K through 6 with tips on effective reading aloud storytelling and classroom and library activities It also includes references to related titles that help teachers and librarians plan effective programs and instill a love of books and reading as well as a bibliography of professional books     Paperbound Books in Print, 1992     Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001     Books in Print Supplement, 1984     The Boston Globe Index, 1996     Best Books for Children Catherine Barr, 2006 Contains more than 25 000 titles of books recommended for children in grades K 6     Everton's Genealogical Helper, 2001-07     O'Lochlainns Personal Journal of Irish Families, 1996     American Book Publishing Record, 2000     Children's Literature Barbara Stoodt, 1996     Global Families Catherine Ceniza Choy, 2013-10-11 In the last fifty years transnational adoption specifically the adoption of Asian children has exploded in popularity as an alternative path to family making Despite the cultural acceptance of this practice surprisingly little attention has been paid to the factors that allowed Asian international adoption to flourish In Global Families Catherine Ceniza Choy unearths the little known historical origins of Asian international adoption in the United States Beginning with the post World War II presence of the U S military in Asia she reveals how mixed race children born of Japanese Korean and Vietnamese women and U S servicemen comprised one of the earliest groups of adoptive children Based on extensive archival research Global Families moves beyond one dimensional portrayals of Asian international adoption as either a progressive form of U S multiculturalism or as an exploitative form of cultural and economic imperialism Rather Choy acknowledges the complexity of the phenomenon illuminating both its radical possibilities of a world united across national cultural and racial divides through family formation and its strong potential for reinforcing the very racial and cultural hierarchies it sought to challenge The Sun Won't Come Out Tomorrow Kristen

Martin,2025-01-21 The real history of being an orphan in America is nothing like the myth and nothing like the American dream The orphan story has been mythologized Step one While a child is still too young to form distinct memories of them their parents die in an untimely fashion Step two Orphan acquires caretakers who amplify the world s cruelty Step three Orphan escapes and goes on an adventure encountering the world s vast possibilities The Sun Won t Come Out Tomorrow upends this Pairing powerful critiques of popular orphan narratives from Annie to the Boxcar Children to Party of Five journalist Kristen Martin explores the real history of orphanhood in the United States from the 1800s to the present Martin reveals the mission of religious indoctrination that was at the core of the first orphanages the orphan trains that took parentless children out West often without a choice and the inherent classism and racism that still underlies the United States approach to child welfare Through a combination of in depth archival research memoir Martin herself lost both her parents when she was quite young and cultural analysis The Sun Won t Come out Tomorrow is a compellingly argued compassionate book that forces us to reconsider autonomy family and community Kristen Martin delivers a searing indictment of America s consistent inability to care for those who need it most Promoting Great Reads to Improve
