Dead Man Deep A real cracker of a book Combining police procedural with the perils of volunteer lifeboat crew and some dodgy MOD arms dumping thrown in for good measure Reader Review I absolutely loved this book So much so I read it in one sitting The twists kept the pages turning and left me shocked at the end I definitely recommend this series to all crime fiction fans Reader Review Fun page turner this one will have you pining for the Scottish coast Reader Review A very well written and likeable character this had the makings of a cracking series Reader Review Shona Oliver is flawed but hard working and always with good intentions Lynne McEwan has created a captivating character and I hope more books follow Reader Review Excellent storyline and characters so what more do you need The next title can't come quickly enough Reader Review A riveting Scottish police procedural Reader Review Going Back Diana Wallsgrove,2024-07-28 Can we go back there please Just one more time Never Look a Polar Bear in the Eye Zac Unger,2013-01-29 In this humorous mix of travelogue and memoir a writer temporarily moves his California family north to Canada's Polar Bear Capital of the World Welcome to Churchill Manitoba Year round human population 943 Yet despite the isolation and the searing cold here at the arctic's edge visitors from around the globe flock to the town every fall driven by a single purpose to see polar bears in the wild Churchill is The Polar Bear Capital of the World And for one unforgettable bear season Zac Unger his wife and his three children moved from Oakland California to make it their temporary home But they soon discovered that it's really the polar bears who are at home in Churchill roaming past the coffee shop on the main drag peering into garbage cans scratching their backs against fence posts and front doorways Where kids in other towns receive admonitions about talking to strangers Churchill schoolchildren get Let's All Be Bear Aware booklets to bring home Lesson number 8 Never explore bad smelling areas Zac Unger takes readers on a spirited and often wildly funny journey to a place as unique as it is remote a place where natives tourists scientists conservationists and the most ferocious predators on the planet converge In the process he becomes embroiled in the controversy surrounding polar bear science and finds out that some of what we've been led to believe about the bears imminent extinction may not be quite the case But mostly what he learns is about human behavior in extreme situations and also why you should never even think of looking a polar bear in the eye Justice Not Silence Ezra Chitando,Sophia Chirongoma,2013-09-01 The editors of this volume highlight the fact that although the Church often stands up for other public issues such as human rights democratic political rights economic justice etc sexual and gender based violence do not receive the attention they deserve There are no theological or cultural arguments that can justify such a position Sexual and gender based violence are a scourge that defies our Christian understanding of human dignity and challenges the Church in all its formations to respond Although most of the case studies are from Zimbabwe they challenge us regardless of which country we are living in or the tradition of our specific denomination In the context of Southern Africa where the HIV and AIDS burden is among the highest in the world sexual and gender based violence are a major contributor to the spread of the disease This will only change if the Church challenges this practice as part of its educational and public
