Season Of Anguish Mystique 157:

Canadiana, 1984 The Pearl of Princesses Hugh Noel Williams, 1916 The Great Awakening and Southern

Backcountry Revolutionaries Richard J. Chacon, Michael Charles Scoggins, 2014-07-08 This work documents the impact that the Great Awakening had on the inhabitants of colonial America's Southern Backcountry. Special emphasis is placed on how this religious revival furrowed the ground on which the seeds of the American Revolution would sprout. The investigation shows how the Great Awakening can be traced to the Europe's Age of Enlightenment. This effort also demonstrates how and why this revival spread so rapidly throughout the colonies. Special focus is placed on how the Great Awakening impacted the mindset of colonists of the Southern Backcountry. Most significantly, this research demonstrates how this 18th-century revival not only cultivated a sense of American national identity but how it also fostered a colonial mindset against established authority which in turn facilitated the success of the American Revolution. Additionally, this investigation will document from a cross-cultural perspective how religious revivals have fueled other revolutionary movements around the world. Such analysis will include the Celtic Druid Revolt, the Maji Maji Rebellion of East Africa, along with the Mad Man's War in Southeast Asia. Lastly, the ethical ramifications of minimizing or denying the role that religion played in political and social transformations around the world will be addressed. This final point is of paramount importance given current trend in academia to minimize the role that religion played in spurring revolutions while emphasizing material i.e. economic causal factors. This attempt at divorcing religion from history is misguided and unethical because it is not only misleading but it also fails to fully acknowledge the beliefs and values that motivated individuals to take certain actions in the first place. The Arnhem Mystical Sermons Ineke Cornet, 2018-12-06 In this book on The Arnhem mystical sermons Ineke Cornet offers the first in-depth study of the mystical and theological content of this sixteenth-century sermon collection from St Agnes in Arnhem.

Liturgical Feasts and Seasons Thomas Merton, 2023-11-30 Liturgical Feasts and Seasons in this third volume of paper from Thomas Merton's conferences during his decade 1955-1965 as novice master at the Cistercian Abbey of Gethsemani his insight into the liturgical pattern of the Christian year and beyond is presented in fresh detail. Merton's own commitment to this central dimension of Christian life is clear and nowhere more so than in his work introducing students to the patterns that would mark their lives as monks. Though dating from the period just before the liturgical reforms of Vatican II, Merton's commentaries remain pertinent. The thoroughly annotated text is preceded by an extensive introduction situating this material in the context of Merton's lifelong writing on liturgy. Moreover, as his former student Br Paul Quenon notes in his foreword, this context is one deeply rooted in Merton's understanding of Scripture. These notes take us into one man's lifetime of reflection and seasoned experience of the Church Year. In the Liturgical Feasts and Seasons Novitiate Conferences on Scripture and Liturgy 3 Patrick F O Connell deeply rooted in Merton's understanding of Scripture Georges Bataille William Pawlett, 2015-07-24 In this comprehensive and engaging study Georges Bataille's central ideas, the sacred community and eroticism are explored in detail Bataille's project to understand social bonds and energies at their most fundamental level and to re-energise society by challenging individualism is argued to be of continuing relevance to sociological thought Bataille's infamous Collège de Sociologie is placed in the intellectual context of Durkheimian and Maussian sociology Social effervescence gift exchange and the dual ambivalent and volatile nature of the sacred emerge as the central threads of Bataille's thought ideas which challenge both capitalist hegemony and the reductive notion of society as exclusively normative and repressive The study concludes by applying Bataille's ideas to contemporary issues including de secularisation and the rise of religious fundamentalism the vicarious experience of transgressive violence and finally to consumerism and the violence of globalisation The study seeks to reposition Bataille as a key figure in sociological theory

Religious Systems and Psychotherapy Richard H. Cox, 2010-11-01 Man's search for answers to the problem of human existence has led him from soothsayers to psychotherapists He has sought guidance on an individual and group basis This guidance has often resulted in organized institutions of a religious political or philosophical nature The major world religions presented in this book are discussed from the psychotherapeutic and mental health point of view Many other religious systems are included as well as selected specific topics of special concern There are three major sections in this volume Section one includes fourteen major world religious systems Section two includes indigenous and emergent systems such as magic exorcism and witchcraft and section three deals with multiple systems and includes areas of special concern to both the student of religion and human behavior Of particular interest is the section of discussions on the role of the religious man as psychotherapist and the psychotherapist as a religious man Other concerns deal with ethics values morals and psychoanalysis This book will serve as a resource volume for students teachers and practicing professionals in the helping professions particularly the fields of religion and mental health

Sensible Ecstasy Amy Hollywood, 2010-01-15 Sensible Ecstasy investigates the attraction to excessive forms of mysticism among twentieth century French intellectuals and demonstrates the work that the figure of the mystic does for these thinkers With special attention to Georges Bataille Simone de Beauvoir Jacques Lacan and Luce Irigaray Amy Hollywood asks why resolutely secular even anti Christian intellectuals are drawn to affective bodily and widely denigrated forms of mysticism What is particular to these thinkers Hollywood reveals is their attention to forms of mysticism associated with women They regard mystics such as Angela of Foligno Hadewijch and Teresa of Avila not as emotionally excessive or escapist but as unique in their ability to think outside of the restrictive oppositions that continue to afflict our understanding of subjectivity the body and sexual difference Mystics such as these like their twentieth century descendants bridge the gaps between action and contemplation emotion and reason and body and soul offering new ways of thinking about language and the limits of representation

Saints of the Impossible Alexander Irwin, 2002 The transgressive writing of Georges Bataille 1897 1962 and the rigorous ethical philosophy of social activist and Christian mystic Simone Weil 1909 1943 seem to belong to different worlds Yet in the political ferment of 1930s Paris Bataille and Weil were intellectual adversaries who exerted a powerful fascination on each other Saints of the Impossible provides the first in depth comparison of Bataille's and Weil's thought showing how an exploration of their relationship reveals new facets of the achievements of two of the twentieth century's leading intellectual figures and raises far reaching questions about literary practice politics and religion Book jacket

Thought as Experience in Bataille, Cioran, and Rosset Joseph Acquisto, 2024-06-13 Examines how postwar French writers constitute the thinking subject and reshape its relation to the external social world Joseph Acquisto analyzes the writings of three thinkers during and shortly after the Second World War who address the question of what it means to think and what it means to constitute oneself as a thinking subject at a time that seems to come after everything with the ruins of attacked cities echoing the remains of a philosophical tradition that was confident in its establishment of human beings as rational of reason leading to progress and of both the self and the world as knowable What Georges Bataille calls inner experience and Emil Cioran labels thinking against oneself is something akin to a drama not a mere representation of the self in relation to the world but a process of remapping the relation of subject to object of thought dialectically Acquisto argues that both writers adopt an anti systematic approach to thinking that implicates fragmentary writing as a way of turning answers about subject object relations into questions Acquisto contends that this stands in contrast to the approach of Clément Rosset whose affirmation of the inaccessibility of the real leads to an anti intellectual grace filled affirmation of life as it is given under the guise of what he calls the tragic Bringing together thinkers that have seldom been discussed in a comparative light Thought as Experience in Bataille Cioran and Rosset examines the affective dimensions of thought as experience and considers the political stakes of postwar thought as out of order with the world from which it springs

Women, Madness and Sin in Early Modern England Katharine Hodgkin, 2017-05-15 A fascinating case study of the complex psychic relationship between religion and madness in early seventeenth century England the narrative presented here is a rare detailed autobiographical account of one woman's experience of mental disorder The writer Dionys Fitzherbert recounts the course of her affliction and recovery and describes various delusions and confusions concerned with among other things her family and her place within it her relation to religion and the status of the body death and immortality Women Madness and Sin in Early Modern England presents in modern typography an annotated edition of the author's manuscript of this unusual and compelling text Also included are prefaces to the narrative written by Fitzherbert and others and letters written shortly after her mental crisis which develop her account of the episode The edition will also give a modernized version of the original text Katharine Hodgkin supplies a substantial introduction that places this autobiography in the context of current scholarship on early modern women addressing the overarching issues in the field that this text touches upon In an appendix to the volume Hodgkin compares the two versions of the text considering the grounds for the occasional exclusion or substitution of specific words or passages Women Madness and Sin in Early Modern England adds an important new dimension to the field of early modern women studies diaspora culture diversity and African Asian and Indigenous poets A Cultural History of the Emotions in the Age of Romanticism, Revolution, and Empire Susan J. Matt, 2020-08-20 Between 1780 and 1920 modern conceptions of emotion conceptions still very much present in the 21st century first took shape This book traces that history charting the changing meaning and experience of feelings in an era shaped by political and market revolutions romanticism empiricism the rise of psychology and psychoanalysis During this period the word emotion itself gained currency gradually supplanting older vocabularies and visions of feeling Terms to describe feelings changed so too did conceptions of emotions proper role in politics economics and culture Political upheavals turned a spotlight on the role of feeling in public life in domestic life sentimental bonds gained new importance as families were transformed from productive units to emotional ones From the halls of parliaments to the familial hearth from the art museum to the theatre from the pulpit to the concert hall lively debates over feelings raged across the 19th century Into the Region of Awe David C. Downing, 2005-04-21 David C Downing explores mysticism as a part of C S Lewis s faith and writing He addresses both the influence on Lewis by mystical writers of his own day and the threads of mysticism evident in Lewis s works Mysterious Travelers Zack Kruse, 2021-02-01 2022 Honorable Mention Recipient of the Charles Hatfield Book Prize from the Comics Studies Society Steve Ditko 1927 2018 is one of the most important contributors to American comic books As the cocreator of Spider Man and sole creator of Doctor Strange Ditko made an indelible mark on American popular culture Mysterious Travelers Steve Ditko and the Search for a New Liberal Identity resets the conversation about his heady and powerful work Always inward facing Ditko s narratives employed superhero and supernatural fantasy in the service of self examination and with characters like the Question Mr A and Static Ditko turned ordinary superhero comics into philosophic treatises Many of Ditko s philosophy driven comics show a clear debt to ideas found in Ayn Rand s Objectivism Unfortunately readers often reduce Ditko s work to a mouthpiece for Rand s vision Mysterious Travelers unsettles this notion In this book Zack Kruse argues that Ditko s philosophy draws on a complicated network of ideas that is best understood as mystic liberalism Although Ditko is not the originator of mystic liberalism his comics provide a unique window into how such an ideology operates in popular media Examining selections of Ditko s output from 1953 to 1986 Kruse demonstrates how Ditko s comics provide insight into a unique strand of American thought that has had a lasting impact "Agency, Visuality and Society at the Chartreuse de Champmol" Sherry C. M. Lindquist, 2017-07-05 Grounded in archival sources this interdisciplinary study explores the profound historical significance of the mausoleum of the Valois Dukes of Burgundy the Chartreuse de Champmol Although the monument is well known as the site of pivotal works of art by Claus Sluter Melchior Broederlam Jean de Beaumetz and others until now art historians have not considered how these works functioned at the center of a complex social matrix Sherry Lindquist here considers the sacred subjects of the various sculptures and paintings not merely as devotional tools or theological statements but as profoundly influential social instruments that negotiated complex interactions of power

Lindquist's sophisticated discussion coordinates analysis of primary sources with the most up to date scholarship in the field of art history not only with respect to late medieval Burgundian art but also to more theoretical questions pertaining to reception

A Church for a Secular World Marinus De Jong, 2025-09-25 The relationship between the Church and the world has been a subject of debate since the Church's earliest days Stanley Hauerwas with his emphasis on the Church as polis has made a significant contemporary contribution one that has also faced strong criticism This study examines the distinctive insights of second generation neo Calvinist theologian Klaas Schilder 1890 1952 on this issue Neo Calvinism is renowned for its development of Reformed theology particularly in this area and Schilder builds on this tradition with a critical eye Engaging with the increasing secularity of the twentieth century he carefully interacts with Karl Barth's writings while refining his own perspective In doing so Schilder's position comes close to the Anabaptist stance of Hauerwas yet remains firmly rooted in the Reformed understanding of creation
