A Season with Verona Tim Parks, 2002 After twenty years of living in Italy Tim Parks whom Joseph Brodsky has called the best British author writing today spent a full year following the fortunes and misfortunes of the Verona football soccer club Here is his rollicking report     A Season With Verona Tim Parks, 2011-04-18 Part travelogue part mediation and part football memoir     A Season With Verona: Travels Around Italy in Search of Illusion, National Character, and...Goals! Tim Parks, 2002 After 20 years of living in Italy Tim Parks whom Joseph Brodsky has called the best British author working today spent a full year following the fortunes and misfortunes of the Verona football soccer club Here is his rollicking report From Udine to Catania from San Siro to the Olimpico traveling with the fans and the players from the tip to the toe of Italy Tim Parks offers a highly personal account of his relationship with a country its people and its national sport The fans as always are accused of vulgarity racism and violence The police are ambiguous the journeys exhausting the referees unforgivable the anecdotes hilarious In a world stripped of idealism and increasingly bereft of religion Parks suggests that soccer offers a new and fiercely ironic way of engaging with the sacred     A Season with Verona Tim Parks, 2012-01-23 Is Italy a united country or a loose affiliation of warring states Is Italian football which we Americans know as soccer a sport or an ill disguised protraction of ancient enmities After twenty years in the bel paese Tim Parks goes on the road to follow the fortunes of his hometown soccer club Hellas Verona to pay a different kind of visit to some of the world s most beautiful cities and to get a fresh take on the conundrum that is national character From Udine to Catania from the San Siro to the Olimpico traveling with the raucous and unruly Verona fans whose conduct is a cross between that of asylum inmates and the Keystone Kops Tim Parks offers his highly personal account of one man s relationship with a country its people and its national sport The clubs are struggling as always to keep their heads above water in Serie A The fans as always are accused of vulgarity racism and violence It s an election year and politics encroaches The police are ambiguous the journeys exhausting the referees unforgivable the anecdotes hilarious And behind it all is the growing intuition that in a world stripped of idealism and bereft of religion soccer offers a new and fiercely ironic way of forming community and engaging with the sacred     A Season with Verona Flag Tim Parks, 2002-03-01     Fables of the Law Daniela Carpi, Marett Leiboff, 2016-10-24 The latest development concerning the metaphorical use of the fairy tale is the legal perspective The law had and has recourse to fairy tales in order to speak of the nomos and its subversion of the politically correct and of the various means that have been used to enforce the law Fairy tales are a fundamental tool to examine legal procedures and structures in their many failings and errors Therefore we have privileged the term fables of the law just to stress the ethical perspective they are moral parables that often speak of justice miscarried and justice sought Law and jurists are creators of fables on the view that law is born out of the facts ex facto ius oritur so that there is a need for narrative coherence both on the level of the case and the level of legislation or turned the other way around what does it mean if no such coherence is found This is especially of interest given the influx of all kinds of new technologies that are fabulous in themselves and hard to incorporate in traditional doctrinal schemes and thus in the construction of a new reality

Relocation narratives form a distinct subgenre of contemporary travel memoirs concerned with the experiences of travellers who become settlers in foreign locales and narrate their experience of cultural accommodation in serial autobiographical accounts This book seeks to understand the discourse of identity alterity in relocation writing which focuses on the topos of everyday life from a transnational perspective one which embraces a cosmopolitan orientation of openness to cultural difference Focusing on three transnational writers in Italy and their respective relocation trilogies Frances Mayes's Tuscan memoirs Annie Hawes's Ligurian memoirs and Tim Parks's Verona memoirs the study examines the sustained engagement with place and place based practices given narrative voice through multipart works which trace the authors migrating identities These nonfiction accounts contribute to a broader polyphonic literature in which transnational writers give voice to personal stories shaped by intercultural experiences which provide a powerful localised lens to examine how identities are dialogically transformed through contact with difference in a globalised world By giving readers an opportunity to reflect on identity and diversity in local global contexts transnational literature contributes to a better understanding of cultural change in late modernity and provides an important space for critical creative and transcultural exchange
