Seattle Five Plus One:

Crossing Over Priscilla Long, 2015-07-15 Long's work begs to be read aloud in order to savor the rich language and rhythm she instills in each poem. She explores the beauty of specific bridges while employing them as a metaphor for crossings to death, a sister's suicide, eros, and art. Part elegy, the book also explores living, remembering, and celebrating. Jo Nelson Greatest Hits Jo Nelson, 2001 Lost Restaurants of Seattle Chuck Flood, 2016-01-25 An expert in Americana explores the legendary eateries of Seattle's past from culinary pioneers to neighborhood haunts, roadside diners, and more. From the nineteenth century to today, Seattle has been home to some of the finest oyster houses, dining rooms, and lunch counters in America. It has seen them come and in many cases watched them go. In Lost Restaurants of Seattle, author Chuck Flood celebrates nearly a thousand of Seattle's vanished eateries along with a few resilient survivors. Exploring their cuisines and recipes, Flood tells of how Manca's Caf invented the irresistible Dutch Baby pancake while Trader Vic's gained reverence for its legendary Mai Tais. And with wonderful historic images, she shows why places like the railroad car-themed Andy's Diner and the Twin T's with its iconic wigwam-shaped dining rooms live on in the city's culinary memory long after their departure. 5 a Day for Better Health Program, 2001 International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004 Provides up-to-date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets. Fire and Stone Priscilla Long, 2016 The questions that drive Priscilla Long's Fire and Stone are the questions asked by the painter Paul Gauguin in the title of his 1897 painting Where Do We Come From? What Are We? Where Are We Going? These questions look beyond everyday trivialities to ponder the essence of our origins. Using her own story as a touchstone, Long explores our human roots and how they shape who we are today. Her personal history encompasses childhood as an identical twin on a dairy farm on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, the turmoil, social change, and music of the 1960s, the suicide of a sister, and a life in art in the Pacific Northwest. Here, memoir extends the threads of the writer's individual and very personal life to science, to history, and to ancestors, both literary and genetic, back to the Neanderthals. Long uses profoundly poetic personal essays to draw larger connections and to ask compelling questions about identity. Framed by four distinctive sections, Fire and Stone transcends genre and evolves into a sweeping elegy on what it means to be human. Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 United States. Internal Revenue Service, 1997 Indian Child Welfare United States. Children's Bureau, 1976 The Seattle Five Plus One, 1995 Lem Banker's Sports Betting Lem Banker, 2014-08-08
