Podcasting, and Puppetry Kristin Fontichiaro, 2007-03-30 Contrary to the trend to do away with arts education as an unnecessary expense in schools trying to boost student test scores this book promotes and explains the value of integrated arts instruction in furthering the accomplishment of curricular objectives and fostering student achievement Accomplished library media specialist and arts instructor Kristin Fontichiaro discusses how drama shadow puppetry and podcasting can be used as tools to meet curriculum objectives in the K 8 media center By concentrating on the process of creating a piece of drama or puppetry or a podcast as opposed to the goal of performance and by infusing the arts with curriculum objectives in story or research these techniques can intensify a child's learning and provide context for classroom curriculum objectives A discussion of the affective and academic benefits of this process based work as well as sample lessons are included Photographs and examples of student work illustrate the techniques Grades K 8 Chinese Shadow Theatre Fan Pen Li Chen, 2007-06-21 In her study of Chinese shadow theatre Fan Pen Li Chen documents and corrects misconceptions about this once popular art form Drawing on extensive research and fieldwork she argues that these plays served a mainly religious function during the Qing dynasty and that the appeal of women warrior characters reflected the lower classes high tolerance for the unorthodox and subversive Chinese Shadow Theatre includes several rare transcriptions of oral performances including a didactic play on the eighteen levels of Hell and Investiture of the Gods a sacred saga and translations of three rare hand copied shadow plays featuring religious themes and women warrior characters Chen examines the relationship between historical and fictional women warriors and those in military romances and shadow plays to demonstrate the significance of both printed works and oral transmission in the diffusion of popular culture She also shows that traditional folk theatre is a subject for serious academic study by linking it to recent scholarship on drama popular religion and popular culture

Light as Experience and Imagination from Paleolithic to Roman Times David S. Herrstrom, 2017-09-26 This book is an interdisciplinary synthesis and interpretation about the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from Paleolithic to Roman times Humanistic in spirit and in its handling of facts it marshals a substantial body of scholarship to develop an explication of light as a central even dramatic reality of human existence and experience in diverse cultural settings David S Herrstrom underscores our intimacy with light not only its constant presence in our life but its insinuating character Focusing on our encounters with light and ways of making sense of these this book is concerned with the personal and cultural impact of light exploring our resistance to and acceptance of light Its approach is unique The book's true subject is the individual's relationship with light rather than the investigation of light's essential nature It tells the story of light seducing individuals down through the ages Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions to it as reflected in art Paleolithic through Roman architecture Egyptian Grecian Roman mythology and religion Paleolithic Egyptian and literature e.g. Akhenaten Plato Aeschylus Lucretius John the Evangelist Plotinus and Augustine This book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light's character No individual experience of light is truer than any other none improves on any previous experience of light's tidal pull on us And the wondrous variety of these encounters has yielded a richly layered tapestry of human experience By its broad scope and interdisciplinary approach this pioneering book is without precedent

Magic Shadows Martin Quigley, 2022-07-21 In Magic Shadows Martin Quigley delves into the complex interplay between illusion and reality capturing the fragile boundary that separates the two Set against the backdrop of a changing cultural landscape Quigley employs a lyrical style enriched with vivid imagery and intricate symbolism drawing on a diverse literary context that includes elements of magical realism and existential philosophy The narrative unfolds through a tapestry of interconnected stories each revealing the characters' innermost hopes and fears while challenging the reader to question the nature of their own perceptions and experiences Martin Quigley an accomplished writer and cultural critic brings to this work a wealth of personal experiences and a deep understanding of the human psyche Having explored themes of identity and authenticity in his previous writings Quigley's knowledge of psychological intrigue serves to enhance the depth and nuance of Magic Shadows His fascination with the ways in which art and life intersect is evident throughout reflecting his belief that storytelling itself is an act of magic that can transform our understanding of reality This compelling exploration of human consciousness and the art of narrative will resonate with readers who appreciate works that challenge the boundaries of genre and invite introspection Ideal for those seeking a profound yet accessible read Magic Shadows invites audiences to lose themselves in its enchanting depths and emerge with a renewed perspective on life and art

The Geometries of Afro Asia Joan Kee, 2023-04-18

How do we embark on a history of art that proceeds from the assumption of a global majority Taking as a rhetorical departure the construct of Afro Asia which doubles as both an ontological reference and an epistemological intervention this book centers the worlds Black and Asian artists initiate through their work Afro Asia breaks down delineated time into points trajectories angles magnitudes and relative positions so that temporality and chronology figure primarily as questions of geometry it asks if and how we can we be something other than what biology politics culture and economics tells us we are or must become Spanning North America Europe Asia and Africa this book challenges the institutionalization of contemporary art as a global enterprise increasingly governed by the judgments of a self selecting minority Optic Antics Michele Pierson, David E. James, Paul Arthur, 2011-04-19 Ken Jacobs has been making cinema for more than fifty years Along with over thirty film and video works he has created an array of shadow plays sound pieces installations and magic lantern and film performances that have transformed how we look at and think about moving images He is part of the permanent collections at MoMA and the Whitney and his work has been celebrated in Europe and the U S While his importance is well recognized this is the first volume dedicated entirely to him It includes essays by prominent film scholars along with photographs and personal pieces from artists and critics all of which testify to the extraordinary variety and influence of his accomplishments Anyone interested in cinema or experimental arts will be well rewarded by a greater acquaintance with the genius the innovation and the optical antics of Ken Jacobs First Steps in Science Carrie Branigan, 2003 First Steps in Science has been written especially for Foundation Stage P1 children and provides a full year s worth of planning and resources for you to incorporate Science into the classroom offering a coordinated starting point for other areas of learning This Teacher s Resource Book contains 36 activity plans organized into 6 units Units are based on particular areas of Science and cross referenced with other areas of learning for an integrated approach Tried and tested activity plans incorporate role play and other play opportunities Materials relate to the Early Learning Goals and their Stepping Stones to ensure continuity and progression in children s learning Children's Literature Barbara Stoodt, 1996 Travel Shadows by Justinus Kerner Harold B. Segel, 2014-03-17 Justinus Kerner 1786 1862 was one of the most celebrated figures in nineteenth century German culture A physician by training he was also a leading member of the Swabian Romantic circle of poets which included among others Ludwig Uhland and Gustav Schwab Kerner s international fame rests primarily on his contributions to the investigation of paranormal phenomena The most important of these was his exhaustive case study Die Seherin von Prevorst The Seeress of Prevorst 1829 The book was translated into English in 1849 by the English writer Catherine Crowe 1803 76 Until the present this has been the only work of Kerner available in English Apart from his many scientific publications and his poetry Kerner was also the author of one of the more intriguing literary works of German Romanticism Die Reiseschatten Travel Shadows 1811 Ostensibly an account of his travels through Germany and Austria following his graduation from the University of T bingen the book is a highly imaginative almost surreal concoction of Romantic sentimental grotesque satirical and Old German folkloric elements Attributed by Kerner to an itinerant shadow performer named Lux Travel Shadows was inspired by the tradition of Chinese Shadows ombres chinoises and represents Kerner's attempt to create a travel narrative in the form of a grandiose shadow show In the introduction to his translation of Travel Shadows the first in English Harold B Segel situates Kerner's work in the context of the emergence of a German shadow show tradition in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries
