Long Way From Home A Novel:

A Long Way from Home Claude McKay, 2007 McKay's account of his long odyssey from Jamaica to Harlem and then on to France Britain North Africa Russia and finally back to America As well as depicting his own experiences the author describes his encounters with such notable personalities as Charlie Chaplin George Bernard Shaw H G Wells Leon Trotsky W E B Du Bois Isadora Duncan Paul Robeson and Sinclair Lewis

A Long Way from Home Peter Carey, 2018-02-27 Irene Bobs loves fast driving Her husband is the best car salesman in southeastern Australia Together they enter the 1954 Redex Trial a weeks long endurance contest of a car race that circles the entire continent With them is their lanky fair haired navigator deposed quiz show champion and failed schoolteacher Willie Bachhuber If they win the Redex the Bobs name alone will get them a dealership and Willie will have recharged a life currently ground to a halt But before any of that might happen their official strip maps will lead them without warning out of the comfortable white Australia they know so well A breakneck often hilarious eye opening adventure that at the same time reminds us how white people took possession of a timeless culture the high purpose they invented and the crimes they committed along the way A Long Way from Home is Peter Carey's late style masterpiece

A Long Way from Home Pat Sandiford Grygier, 1997-03-27 A comprehensive account of the tuberculosis epidemic among the Inuit in the mid part of the century The Inuit were victims not only of the epidemic but also of the Canadian government's shockingly slow response and lack of concern for their culture Grygier's focus is on patients experiences and the programs set up to deal with the epidemic rather than on a purely medical discussion of the disease and treatment Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

A Long Way from Home Janet Plummer, 2014-01-16 The reader is drawn into the world of a spirited little girl from the Caribbean as she journeys with her mother to a new country Sometimes funny sometimes sad her simple story tugs at the heart You will feel like you are right there sharing the newness and excitement of the adventure Children will relate to her raw emotions and adults will be captivated by her transparency and honesty A must read for all

A Long Way from Home Tom Brokaw, 2002-11-05 Reflections on America and the American experience as he has lived and observed it by the bestselling author of The Greatest Generation whose iconic career in journalism has spanned more than fifty years From his parents life in the Thirties on to his boyhood along the Missouri River and on the prairies of South Dakota in the Forties into his early journalism career in the Fifties and the tumultuous Sixties up to the present this personal story is a reflection on America in our time Tom Brokaw writes about growing up and coming of age in the heartland and of the family the people the culture and the values that shaped him then and still do today His father Red Brokaw a genius with machines followed the instincts of Tom's mother Jean and took the risk of moving his small family from an Army base to Pickstown South Dakota where Red got a job as a heavy equipment operator in the Army Corps of Engineers project building the Ft Randall dam along the Missouri River Tom Brokaw describes how this move became the pivotal decision in their lives as the Brokaw family along with others after World War II began to

Claude McKay, Rebel Sojourner in the Harlem Renaissance Wayne F. Cooper, 1996-02 Cooper paints a meticulous and absorbing portrait of McKay's restless artistic intellectual and political odyssey The definitive biography on McKay Choice Although recognized today as one of the genuine pioneers of black literature in this century the author of If We Must Die Home to Harlem Banana Bottom and A Long Way from Home among other works Claude McKay 1890-1948 died penniless and almost forgotten in a Chicago hospital In this masterly study Wayne Cooper presents a fascinating detailed account of McKay's complex chaotic and frequently contradictory life In his poetry and fiction as well as in his political and social commentaries McKay searched for a solid foundation for a valid black identity among the working class cultures of the West Indies and the United States He was an undeniably important predecessor to such younger writers of the Harlem Renaissance as Langston Hughes and Countee Cullen and also to influential West Indian and African writers such as C. L. R. James and Aimé Césaire Knowledge of his life adds important dimensions to our understanding of American radicalism the expatriates of the 1920s and American literature Mr Cooper's most original contribution is his careful and perceptive analysis of McKay's nonfiction writing especially his social and political commentary which often contained prophetic statements on a range of important social political and historical issues New York Times Book Review

Jane Austen and the Creation of Modern Fiction Collins Hemingway, 2024-05-23 Jane Austen's creative process has been largely unexamined This book explores her development as a writer what she adapted from tradition for her needs what she learned novel to novel how she used that learning in future works and how her ultimate mastery of fiction changed the course of English literature Jane Austen overcame the limitations of early fiction by pivoting from superficial adventures to the psychological studies that have defined the novel since Her creativity and technique grew as she wrestled with pragmatic writing issues This evaluation of Austen's creative process

brings into focus the strengths and weaknesses of her six novels Each is examined in its use of major fictional techniques description scene building point of view and psychological development to reveal unique literary attributes The result is a revealing analysis of how world class fiction is built from the ground up
