Look Back With Joy:

Look Back On Happiness, The Last Joy Knut Hamsun, 2020-01-11 Published in Norway in 1912 The Last Joy Den Siste Glaede appears at an important transition point in Hamsun's career as he moved away from his intense observations of individual characters to focus on a broader canvas of small town and farm life social units of the Norwegian culture If Hunger 1890 represents the epitome Hamsun's focus on the individual his works of the late teens and 1920s particularly Growth of the Soil 1917 and Women at the Pump 1920 best represent the latter The Last Joy lies somewhere between with all the comic eccentricity of Hamsun's great individualistic portraits and the small town pretensions and social inter relationships of his later works Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly, 1892 The Ten Worlds Ash ElDifrawi, Alex

Lickerman, 2018-10-02 What exactly is happiness that we spend our lives pursuing it more fiercely than anything else The answer Drs Lickerman and ElDifrawi argue is that happiness isn't just a good feeling but a special good feeling in fact the best good feeling we're capable of having Enduring happiness is something we all want yet many of us fail to achieve Look around you How many people do you know who would say they feel a constant and powerful sense of satisfaction with their lives How many people do you imagine wouldn't find their ability to be happy impaired by a significant loss like the death of a parent a spouse or a child How is it possible to be happy in the long term when so many terrible things are destined to happen to us In this highly engaging and eminently practical book told in the form of a Platonic dialogue recounting real life patient experiences Drs Lickerman and ElDifrawi assert that the reason genuine long lasting happiness is so difficult to achieve and maintain is that we're profoundly confused not only about how to go about it but also about what happiness is In identifying nine basic erroneous views we all have about what we need to be happy views they term the core delusions Lickerman and ElDifrawi show us that our happiness depends not on our external possessions or even on our experiences but rather on the beliefs we have that shape our most fundamental thinking These beliefs they argue create ten internal life conditions or worlds through which we continuously cycle and that determine how happy we're able to be Drawing on the latest scientific research as well as Buddhist philosophy Lickerman and ElDifrawi argue that once we learn to embrace a correct understanding of happiness we can free ourselves from the suffering the core delusions cause us and enjoy the kind of happiness we all want the kind found in the highest of the Ten Worlds the world of Enlightenment The Ten Worlds Hell Hunger Animality Anger Tranquility Rapture Learning Realization Compassion Enlightenment Joy the Baker
