Judy Held Monsour, 1964 Song of the Heart Ramón López Velarde, 1995 Ramón López Velarde 1888-1921 was one of the most Mexican of Mexican poets whose sense of history found expression in many poems including his best known La suave Patria Sweet Land This bilingual collection drawn primarily from Poesías completas y el minuterio offers English language readers our first book length introduction to his poetry Often called a poet of the provinces López Velarde gives us a glimpse into a slower and more gentle way of life His poems present the contrast between city and hometown and between urban and pastoral landscapes Through these contrasts runs the thread of religious faith while urgency of language informs the entire body of his poetic production Original specially commissioned drawings by noted contemporary Mexican artist Juan Soriano complement the poems This combination of poetry and art speaks to universal emotions indeed the poetry of López Velarde belongs to everyone who sings the Song of the Heart Dictionary of Mexican Literature Eladio Cortés, 1992-11-24 This volume features approximately 600 entries that represent the major writers literary schools and cultural movements in the history of Mexican literature A collaborative effort by American Mexican and Hispanic scholars the text contains bibliographical biographical and critical material placing each work cited within its cultural and historical framework Intended to enrich the English speaking public's appreciation of the rich diversity of Mexican literature works are selected on the basis of their contribution toward an understanding of this unique artistry The dictionary contains entries keyed by author and works the length of each entry determined by the relative significance of the writer or movement being discussed Each biographical entry identifies the author's literary contribution by including facts about his or her life and works a chronological list of works a supplementary bibliography and when appropriate critical notes Authors are listed alphabetically and cross referenced both within the text and the index to facilitate easy access to information Selected bibliographical entries are also listed alphabetically by author and include both the original title and English translation publisher date and place of publication and number of pages Mexican Literature David William Foster, 2010-07-22 Mexico has a rich literary heritage that extends back over centuries to the Aztec and Mayan civilizations This major reference work surveys more than five hundred years of Mexican literature from a sociocultural perspective More than merely a catalog of names and titles it examines in detail the literary phenomena that constitute Mexico's most significant and original contributions to literature Recognizing that no one scholar can authoritatively cover so much territory David William Foster has assembled a group of specialists some of them younger scholars who write from emerging trends in Latin American and Mexican literary scholarship The topics they discuss include pre-Columbian indigenous writing Joanna O Connell Colonial literature Lee H Dowling Romanticism Margarita Vargas nineteenth century prose fiction Mario Mart n Flores Modernism Bart L Lewis major twentieth century genres narrative Lanin A Gyurko poetry Adriana Garc a theater Kirsten F Nigro the essay Martin S Stabb literary criticism Daniel Altamiranda and literary journals Luis Pe a Each essay offers detailed analysis of significant issues and major texts and includes an annotated bibliography of important critical sources and reference works The Double Strand Frank Dauster, 2021-10-21 Two strands one indigenous the other imposed produce the poetic and cultural tensions that give form to the work of five contemporary Mexican poets All Chumacero Efrain Huerta Jaime Sabines Ruben Bonifaz Nuno and Rosario Castellanos Although all five are significant figures only Castellanos has yet been widely studied in the United States primarily for her novels and her relations with the feminist movement In spite of a number of rather basic differences in their work these poets share and write within a complicated culture rooted in both the pre-Hispanic and the European traditions Their poetry reflects this in its emphasis on death as a constant presence and in the echoes of both Aztec ritual poetry and European poetry Although apparently very different formally and thematically the five share a number of concerns Each of them writes out of a contradictory inner tension each is preoccupied with the effort to shape language as part of a personal voyage of discovery each is haunted by death and seeks realization or plenitude through love of some kind And each of them ultimately finds there is no escape As Frank Dauster concludes The poetry of Mexico like its people and its society reflects the fusion of two worlds and these complex poets of the double strand operate freely and imaginatively within it Although addressed primarily to specialists in Latin American literature The Double Strand also speaks to those interested in the complex interaction between two widely differing cultural heritages and in the rich fusion this blending produces in Mexican letters I Speak of the City Mauricio Tenorio-Trillo, 2015-02-24 In this dazzling multidisciplinary tour of Mexico City Mauricio Tenorio Trillo focuses on the period 1880 to 1940 the decisive decades that shaped the city into what it is today Through a kaleidoscope of expository forms I Speak of the City connects the realms of literature architecture music popular language art and public health to investigate the city in a variety of contexts as a living history textbook as an expression of the state as a modernist capital as a laboratory and as language Tenorio's formal imagination allows the reader to revel in the free-flowing richness of his narratives opening startling new vistas onto the urban experience From art to city planning from epidemiology to poetry this book challenges the conventional wisdom about both Mexico City and the turn of the century world to which it belonged And by engaging directly with the rise of modernism and the cultural experiences of such personalities as Hart Crane Mina Loy and Diego Rivera I Speak of the City will find an enthusiastic audience across the disciplines From the Mexican Poetry Jaime A. Villareal, 1961
