Lost Films of the Fifties Douglas Brode, 1988 How do you define forgotten A lost film to my mind is a movie that has yet to evolve as a cult film but which has the potential to One rule of thumb in compiling the hundred films I write about here and the selection process was a long painful one was that I would severely limit the number of films featuring big stars I put a high priority on emphasizing movies that ought to be anthologized but which probably never would unless I included them here from Introduction Cult Horror Films Welch D. Everman, 1993 The first study of nearly 100 B movies noted for their unique strangeness Attack of the Fifty foot Woman the Killer Shrews and others The Invisible Art of Film Music Laurence E. MacDonald, 2013-05-02 Beginning with the era of synchronized sound in the 1920s music has been an integral part of motion pictures Whether used to heighten the tension of a scene or evoke a subtle emotional response scores have played a significant if often unrealized role in the viewer s enjoyment In The Invisible Art of Film Music Laurence MacDonald provides a comprehensive introduction for the general student film historian and aspiring cinematographer Arranged chronologically from the silent era to the present day this volume provides insight into the evolution of music in cinema and analyzes the vital contributions of scores to hundreds of films MacDonald reviews key developments in film music and discusses many of the most important and influential scores of the last nine decades including those from Modern Times Gone with the Wind Citizen Kane Laura A Streetcar Named Desire Ben Hur Lawrence of Arabia The Godfather Jaws Ragtime The Mission Titanic Gladiator The Lord of the Rings Brokeback Mountain and Slumdog Millionaire MacDonald also provides biographical sketches of such great composers as Max Steiner Alfred Newman Franz Waxman Bernard Herrmann Elmer Bernstein Henry Mancini Maurice Jarre John Barry John Williams Jerry Goldsmith Dave Grusin Ennio Morricone Randy Newman Hans Zimmer and Danny Elfman Updated and expanded to include scores produced well into the twenty first century this new edition of The Invisible Art of Film Music will appeal not only to scholars of cinema and musicologists but also any fan of film scores 1950s Science Fiction Films and 9/11 Melvin E. Matthews, 2007 1950s Cold War era monsters meet 21st century terrorists this exploration of sci fi movies examines the similarities and differences between the political environment and popular culture of two eras This examination and appreciation of 1950s science fiction films includes behind the scenes tales about their production and many quotes from those who produced and starred in the films The author draws parallels between the Cold War fears of the 1950s and 60s and the constant terrorism alerts of the September 11th era exploring how the politics and the psychological climate of the times influences and is reflected in this vehicle of popular culture This book is the first of its kind studying the pop culture genre in the wake of the September 11th tragedy It shows that whatever the era and whatever the challenges and crises confronting America many entertainment themes remain the same reflecting their respective times and the relevant issues For instance Godzilla the only Fifties era monster to remain a movie star beyond that era could be fashioned to reflect whatever issues dominate the times be they nuclear war in the Fifties when Godzilla originated to a Seventies Godzilla film about environmental pollution Conceivably a Godzilla for the age of terrorism is possible Them the 1954 atomic mutation classic is the spiritual ancestor of the 2002 film Eight Legged Freaks The alien invaders of the Fifties signified a Russian invasion of America while other films of the genre such as Invaders from Mars depicted aliens utilizing mind control to manipulate humans to commit acts of sabotage signifying Communist enslavement If such a film were made now such invaders could be seen as terrorist masterminds using human slaves to commit terrorist acts Finally several Fifties films depicted the end of the world at a time when Americans expected a nuclear war with Russia The immediate pre September 11th era witnessed films presenting galactic threats to mankind s existence Independence Day Deep Impact Armageddon while the early 2000s witnessed the popularity of the Left Behind Christian films dramatizing the Tribulation period in the Book of Revelation Down from the Attic John T. Soister, Henry Nicolella, 2016-06-23 Much has been written and rewritten about classic horror and science fiction films like Nosferatu and Metropolis as well as not so classic pictures like Bride of the Monster and The Hideous Sun Demon Yet some genre films have fallen through the cracks The 24 films some elusive some easily found on YouTube examined in this book all suffered critical neglect and were prematurely stacked in the attic The authors bring them back into the light beginning with Der Tunnel 1915 about the building of a transatlantic tunnel and ending with The Emperor s Baker The Baker s Emperor 1951 a bizarre Marxist take on the Golem legend A variety of thrillers are covered Fog 1933 Return of the Terror 1934 Forgotten Faces 1928 along with such sci fi leaps into the future as The Sky Ranger 1921 High Treason 1929 and Just Imagine 1930 Early adaptations include The Man Who Laughs 1921 The Monkey s Paw 1923 Hound of the Baskervilles 1937 and Sweeney Todd 1928 Rare stills and background material are included in a discussion of Hispanic vintage horror The career of exploitation auteur Bud Pollard The Horror 1933 is examined Television Western Players of the Fifties Everett Aaker, 2024-10-15 Modeled after the Mack V Wright 1920 film version the 1949 western television series The Lone Ranger made Clayton Moore s masked character one of the most recognized in American popular culture Other westerns followed and by 1959 there were 32 being shown daily on prime time television Many of the stars of the nearly 75 westerns went on to become American icons and symbols of the Hollywood West This encyclopedia includes every actor and actress who had a regular role in a television western from 1949 through 1959 The entries cite biographical and family details accounts of how the player first broke into show business and details of roles played as well as opinions from the actors and their contemporaries A full accounting of film serial and television credits is also included The appendix lists 84 television westerns with dates show times themes and stars

Genre and Hollywood

Stephen Neale, 2000

Genre and Hollywood provides a comprehensive introduction to the study of genre In this important new book Steve Neale discusses all the major concepts theories and accounts of Hollywood and genre as well as the key genres which theorists have written about from horror to the Western He also puts forward new arguments about the importance of genre in understanding Hollywood cinema Neale takes issue with much genre criticism and genre theory which has provided only a partial and misleading account of Hollywood's output He calls for broader and more flexible conceptions of genre and genres for more attention to be paid to the discourses and practices of Hollywood itself for the nature and range of Hollywood's films to be looked at in more detail and for any assessment of the social and cultural significance of Hollywood's genres to take account of industrial factors In detailed revisionist accounts of two major genres film noir and melodrama Neale argues that genre remains an important and productive means of thinking about both New and old Hollywood its history its audiences and its films
