the door and brought in a tray The boys suddenly drew up alertly and realized for the first time that they had been listening The consciousness that they had been off their guard was embarrassing to them and they sought at once boy like to cover this with a degree of hilarity out of all proportion to what they felt Only the boy Wayne did not join in He sat silent thoughtful with a softened yet deeply sad look on his face gazing into the fire Miss Gracen as she looked at him longed to ask him to tell her what was the matter There must be something terribly wrong when a young face could wear a look of anguish such as that On the tray were delicate sandwiches of brown and white bread with delectable filling and a pot of hot chocolate with a bowl of whipped cream Rebecca stepped softly behind Hiram bearing a plate of little frosted sponge cakes Wayne Forrest looked at the tray startled and arose as though he had inadvertently committed a terrible breach of etiquette It s time we beat it he said in an undertone to Harold whose end of the couch was near his chair I didn t know it was supper time did you 178 But Tom Atterbury sprang up to help pass the plates and cried out Gee Isn t this great I say Miss Gracen you re the right stuff It required Miss Gracen s gentle persuasive hand on Wayne s arm and her earnest insistence to make him sit down again and partake of the good things He seemed all too conscious of his shabby suit his sleeves which were too short and his hands which reached too far out
