Production Methods Kim H. Madsen, Lars Qvortrup, 2012-12-06 Kim Halskov Madsen Up until a few decades ago business administration and science were the primary areas in which computers were applied but terms like pervasive computing reflect that interactive computing power is becoming an embedded part of people's every day environment not only office buildings and private homes but also art and culture. At one of the frontiers of multimedia applications computers are used as natural events part of experimental theatre puppet theatre musical performances museums entertainment and learning. In some of these domains people interact with the computers using a mouse keyboard and a 17 inch monitor but present day interfaces take a variety of forms including motion capture technology and displays of up to several metres in height and width. The trend of applying computer technologies in the domain of art and culture has been one of the pivots of a Danish research project Staging of Virtual Inhabited 3D Spaces. The results of the project are presented in a series of four volumes of which this book is the last one. The three other publications are Virtual Interaction Interaction in Virtual Inhabited 3D Worlds Virtual Space The Spatiality of Virtual Inhabited 3D Worlds and 3D Applications Applications with Virtual Inhabited 3D Worlds.
