The Manchurian Candidate Greil Marcus, 2020-05-14 It may be the most sophisticated political thriller ever made in Hollywood film critic Pauline Kael wrote of John Frankenheimer's terrifying 1962 political thriller about an American serviceman brainwashed in Korea and made into an assassin Sophisticated to be sure it's also a headlong fall through the looking glass of American politics and the most deeply prophetic film of the second half of the American century As Greil Marcus reconstructs the drama The Manchurian Candidate is a movie in which the director and actors including Laurence Harvey Frank Sinatra and Angela Lansbury in an Academy Award nominated performance were suddenly capable of anything beyond any expectations This edition includes a new foreword highlighting the movie's terrifying contemporary relevance in the age of Trump and Russian interference in the US Presidential election British Film Institute Film Classics Rob White, Edward Buscombe, 2003

The Films of Jesus Franco, 1953-1966 Francesco Cesari, Roberto Curti, 2024-06-06 With more than 180 films during a career spanning several decades Jesus Franco 1930 2013 was an extraordinarily prolific and chameleon like Spanish director covering virtually every genre from horror to film noir adventure and erotic and adapting to all kinds of productions A one of a kind filmmaker he was boldly original in the themes style and in his idea of cinema This book examines his life and career between his first short film to the moment he cut his ties with his home country and became an international director with a detailed production history and critical analysis of his films placing his work within the social and political context of Spanish culture politics and cinema Franco's

Catalogue, 1991 October Richard Taylor, 2019-07-25 Richard Taylor asks to what extent the film can lay claim to authentic history. He then examines October's relationship to the politics of the period and explains the theory and its application as well as placing October in the wider context of Eisenstein's career. Some Like It Hot Steven Cohan, 2025-05-01 Billy Wilder's classic screwball comedy Some Like it Hot 1959 starring Jack Lemmon, Tony Curtis and Marilyn Monroe tells the story of two struggling Jazz musicians who accidentally witness a mob massacre in Chicago who then disguised as women join a female band to escape the gangsters pursuit. Despite the film's popular reception with Academy Award nominations for Wilder and star Jack Lemmon, the film gained notoriety for its crossdressing plot and gender bending comedy. Steven Cohan's study of the film disentangles its production history and subsequent notoriety from the film itself, reconsidering the ways in which it playfully challenged generic and gender conventions of the 1950s. He provides an in depth analysis of the film's near perfect comedic structure, Wilder's aesthetic choices and self reflexive star performances by Curtis, Lemmon and Monroe. He goes on to consider the film's queerness as well as its promotion and reception in 1959. Contextualizing the film within its contemporary moment, he argues its textual richness, one that allows it to be viewed differently across generations, securing its lasting influence in popular culture.
