

Sea Fever

BY JOHN MASEFIELD

I must go down to the seas again, to the lonely sea and the sky,
And all I ask is a tall ship and a star to steer her by;
And the wheel's kick and the wind's song and the white sail's shaking,
And a grey mist on the sea's face, and a grey dawn breaking,

I must go down to the seas again, for the call of the running tide
Is a wild call and a clear call that may not be denied;
And all I ask is a windy day with the white clouds flying,
And the flung spray and the blown spume, and the sea-gulls crying.

I must go down to the seas again, to the vagrant gypsy life,
To the gull's way and the whale's way where the wind's like a whetted knife;
And all I ask is a merry yarn from a laughing fellow-rover,
And quiet sleep and a sweet dream when the long trick's over.

monotony fellowship and loneliness kindness and abuse seasickness and ozone breezes loss and hope This book recounts stories that might otherwise have sunk without trace like so much juvenile flotsam They are sometimes inspiring sometimes heart rending and always compelling Children at Sea embarks on a fresh voyage and explores a world of new experience

Ocean Steve Mentz,2020-03-19 Object Lessons is a series of short beautifully designed books about the hidden lives of ordinary things The ocean comprises the largest object on our planet Retelling human history from an oceanic rather than terrestrial point of view unsettles our relationship with the natural environment Our engagement with the world s oceans can be destructive as with today s deluge of plastic trash and acidification but the mismatch between small bodies and vast seas also emphasizes the frailty and resilience of human experience From ancient stories of shipwrecked sailors to the containerized future of 21st century commerce Ocean splashes the histories we thought we knew into salty and unfamiliar places Object Lessons is published in partnership with an essay series in The Atlantic England, Our England Alan

 Mary Anneeta Mann, 2010 This Anthology of Poetry is for educational use It covers the period from Shakespeare's age to the present In these four centuries civilization has undergone a sea change in its shift to accelerated knowledge and technological capability Poets are struggling to express it There was great redeeming human awareness that grew out of the 20th century a recognition of the inalienable value of the single human life living freely and the need for reverence for it This is clearly illustrated in the difference between After Blenheim by Robert Southey born in 1774 and Anthem for Doomed Youth by Wilfred Owen born in 1893 Concerning war Why twas a very wicked thing said little Wilhelmine Nay Nay My little girl quoth he It was a famous victory compared with What passing bells for these who die as cattle Poets are historians of the heart the organ of love They adjust to the best of their ability to their surroundings mundane or otherwise to their environment inspiring or depressing to our advancing civilization at whatever level they perceive it However there is a recognition of the fragility of life emerging in the 21st century despite the technological revolution or perhaps because of it Each human being is struggling to find and hold on to individual harmony with the Life Force the love of the Universe amid a plethora of conflicting peripheral yet powerful passions many still violating the hard earned reverence for life So the poems in this Anthology have been selected for their spiritual wisdom and harmony their dramatic use of the cadences and beauty of the English Language as well as their pure simplicity and their ability to be part of the healing process soothing the soul mentoring the heart and encouraging us to find meaning in our lives and to understand our role in the universe for example from William Davies Nature's Friends Say what you like all things love me I pick no flowers that wins the bee A Little History of Poetry John Carey, 2020-01-01 A vital engaging and hugely enjoyable guide to poetry from ancient times to the present by one of our greatest champions of literature The Times and Sunday Times Best Books of 2020 A fizzing exhilarating book Sebastian Faulks Sunday Times What is poetry If music is sound organized in a particular way poetry is a way of organizing language It is language made special so that it will be remembered and valued It does not always work over the centuries countless thousands of poems have been forgotten But this Little History is about some that have not John Carey tells the stories behind the world's greatest poems from the oldest surviving one written nearly four thousand years ago to those being written today Carey looks at poets whose works shape our views of the world such as Dante Chaucer Shakespeare Whitman and Yeats He also looks at more recent poets like Derek Walcott Marianne Moore and Maya Angelou who have started to question what makes a poem great in the first place For readers both young and old this little history shines a light for readers on the richness of the world's poems and the elusive quality that makes them all the more enticing
