Warfare and Maritime Conflict in the Late Bronze and Early Iron Age Mediterranean Jeffrey P Emanuel examines the evidence for maritime violence in the Mediterranean region during both the Late Bronze Age and the tumultuous transition to the Early Iron Age in the years surrounding the turn of the 12th century BCE There has traditionally been little differentiation between the methods of armed conflict engaged in during the Late Bronze and Early Iron Ages on both the coasts and the open seas while polities have been alternately characterized as legitimate martial actors and as state sponsors of piracy By utilizing material documentary and iconographic evidence and delineating between the many forms of armed conflict Emanuel provides an up to date assessment not only of the nature and frequency of warfare raiding piracy and other forms of maritime conflict in the Late Bronze Age and Late Bronze Early Iron Age transition but also of the extent to which modern views about this activity remain the product of inference and speculation The Book Buyer, 1889 A review and
