Seal Woman:

The Seal Woman Beverley Farmer, 1993 The Seal Woman Beverley Farmer, 2025-03-01 Portrait of a widow in mourning by one of Australia's most important women writers The Seal Woman was first published to acclaim in 1992 but has been out of print for many years The novel explores the mind of a middle aged Danish woman mourning the recent death of her husband at sea in a cottage lent to her by friends in the seaside village in Victoria where she had spent her honeymoon Farmer's prose is marked by the suppleness of its language and its extraordinary attention to detail Dagmar's observations of the sea and its creatures the light the mist the wind the life of plants are so intense and evocative it is as if she has dissolved into her surroundings On the other hand her passivity leaves her vulnerable to the deceit of others particularly the man she depends on as her lover Her retreat into wonder is undercut by a persistent questioning as to how far it might lead her into a state of submission The Seal Woman was originally published two years after A Body of Water an imaginative montage of journal commonplace book stories and poems which it resembles in its own use of mixed sources from myth and legend and history In bringing these two books back into print alongside Farmer's first work of fiction Alone and her last books The Bone House and This Water Giramondo is building on its commitment not only to this remarkable author but to the republication of contemporary classics by Australian women authors The Seal-Woman, 2015 The Field Day Anthology of Irish Writing Seamus Deane, Andrew Carpenter, Angela Bourke, Jonathan Williams, 1991 Mornings in Mexico D.H. Lawrence, 2020-10-01 From the celebrated English author of Sons and Lovers a collection of essays focused on indigenous life in Mexico and the American Southwest D.H. Sehmsdorf, 1988 Coastal Works Nicholas Allen, Nick Groom, Jos Smith, 2017-07-04 In all the complex cultural history of the islands of Britain and Ireland the idea of the coast as a significant representative space is critical For many important artists coastal space has figured as a site from which to braid ideas of empire nation region and archipelago They have been drawn to the coast as a zone of geographical uncertainty in which the self definitions of the nation founder they have been drawn to it as a peripheral space of vestigial wildness of island retreats and experimental living as a network of diverse localities richly endowed with distinctive forms of cultural heritage and as a dynamically interconnected ecosystem which is at the same time the historic site of significant developments in fieldwork and natural science This collection situates these cultures of the Atlantic edge in a series of essays that create new contexts for coastal study in literary history and criticism The contributors frame their research in response to emerging conversations in archipelagic criticism the blue humanities and island studies the essays challenging the reader to reconsider ideas of margin periphery and exchange These twelve case studies establish the coast as a crucial location in the imaginative history of Britain Ireland and the north Atlantic edge Coastal Works will appeal to readers of literature and history with an interest in the sea the environment and the archipelago from the 18th century to the present Accessible innovative and provocative Coastal Works establishes the important role that the coast plays in our cultural imaginary and suggests a range of methodologies to represent relationships between land sea and cultural work A Year with the Seals Alix Morris, 2025-07-10 For readers of Jennifer Ackerman and Ed Yong environmental journalist Alix Morris recounts the year she spent following seals investigating their fascinating behaviour the effects of their extraordinary return from near extinction and how we can try to bring nature back into balance It might be their large strangely human eyes or their dog like playfulness but seals have long captured people's interest and affection making them the perfect candidate for an environmental cause as well as the subject of decades of study Alix Morris spends a year with these magnetic creatures and brings them to life on the page season by season as she learns about their intelligence their relationships with each other their ecosystems and the changing climate Along with the enigmatic seals themselves Morris gets to know all of the competing interests in the intense debate about the newly recovered seal populations in our coastal waters from local fisherman whose catch is often diminished by savvy seals to tribes who once relied on seal hunting for food clothing and medicine to seal rescue workers and biologists to surfers and swimmers now encountering seal hunting sharks in coastal waters In a world where wildlife populations are disappearing at an alarming rate A Year with the Seals is a rare look at what

Suffrage Memorabilia Kenneth Florey, 2013-06-06 While historians have long recognized the importance of memorabilia to the Woman Suffrage movement the subject has not been explored apart from a few restricted albeit excellent studies Part of the problem is that such objects are scattered about in various collections and museums and can be difficult to access Another is that most scholars do not have ready knowledge of the general nature and history of the type of objects postcards badges sashes toys ceramics sheet music etc that suffragists produced Then new techniques in both printing and manufacturing created numerous possibilities for supporters to develop campaigns of visual rhetoric This work analyzes 70 different categories of suffrage memorabilia while providing numerous images of relevant objects along the way and discussing these innovative production methods Most important this study looks at period accounts often fascinating of how why when and where the memorabilia were used in both America and England

Willful Submission Amanda Paxton, 2018-01-02 Victorian England a Jesuit priest writes of wrestling with God at night limbs entangled an Anglican sister begs Jesus her divine lover to end her aching anticipation of their union a clergyman exhorts nuns to study the example of medieval women who suffered on the rack in order to become brides of Christ Alongside the march of nineteenth century progress ran a seemingly paradoxical fascination with a dark erotically suggestive side of religious devotion the figuration of the Christian God as a heavenly bridegroom who doles out punishment to his bride the individual soul Through innovative case studies of Victorian religious poetry Amanda Paxton reveals that while the punitive model proved a convenient rhetorical tool with which to deflate burgeoning nineteenth century campaigns for women's rights and challenges to Church authority in the hands of several writers it also provided a means of resisting patriarchal institutions and interrogating distinctions between science and religion Willful Submission is the first full length volume to examine the interplay of sex suffering and religion as a touchstone in Victorian culture and verse
