Historical and Religious Memory in the Ancient World Beate Dignas,R. R. Smith,2012-03-15 Historical and Religious Memory in the Ancient World examines how religious and historical memory was fashioned distorted preserved or erased in ancient societies and what wide ranging effects these actions had on the historical process The volume is interested in how memory intersects with and shapes religious traditions and cultural identities Its twelve case studies explore different aspects of the memory layers that make up ancient history social religious cultural and looks at how these layers are represented and refracted in different contexts of the written and material remains of antiquity The process has its beginnings in the dim pasts of ancient communities and continues in the later Greek and Roman periods where our most articulate ancient evidence lies It is a process that continues in a different way in contemporary scholarship which draws on selected evidence and a variety of contrasting representations The three parts of the book vary the lens through which the impact of religious and cultural memory can be grasped Part I looks at the commemoration of religious tradition in the context of cultural interaction Greek Roman Jewish and Christian Part II focuses on how religious identities are defined and how homogenous looking cultures engage in elaborate selective dialogue with their own past In Part III contested versions of the past are interpreted in studies of Roman historiography and of religiously motivated behaviour in late antique Asia Minor This interdisciplinary book highlights and celebrates the work of Simon Price an important thinker and pioneer in this kind of wider historical research in ancient cultures and religions At the Dawn of History Yağmur Heffron,Adam Stone,Martin Worthington,2017-03-24 Nearly 50 students colleagues and friends of Nicholas Postgate join in tribute to an Assyriologist and Archaeologist who has had a profound influence on both disciplines His work and scholarship are strongly felt in Iraq where he was the Director of the British School of Archaeology in the United Kingdom where he is Emeritus Professor of Assyriology in the University of Cambridge and in the subject internationally He has fostered close collaboration with colleagues in Turkey and Iraq where he has been involved in archaeological investigation always seeking to meld the study of texts with that of material remains The essays embrace the full range of Postgate's interests including government and administration art history population studies the economy religion and divination foodstuffs ceramics and Akkadian and Sumerian language in a word all of ancient Mesopotamian civilisation Classical Engraved Gems from Turkey and Elsewhere Sheila E.
