In 1944, representatives from 44 countries around the world met in San Francisco in the United States of America (USA) after the Second World War had ended. The world was left in a mess. There was no longer that intense engineering incentive and there was no longer any plans. The representatives from most of the 44 countries decided that they must do something to establish peace and a very important document was agreed. The document was made up of four very important agreements. The document was:
