Searching For Blue Eyed Trout:

Searching for Blue-Eyed Trout Larry Mehelic, 2002-12 This is a collection of short stories written over the last ten years There are no essays extolling fly fishing as a healer of mind and body Neither will you find dry how to where to details and you won't find a secret fly pattern guaranteed to catch fish on every cast Instead there are anecdotes tall tales and fictional adventures Some of the stories are humorous A couple have more in common with science fiction and Mad Magazine than fly fishing A few take a healthy swipe at fly fishing dogma while a bit of sarcasm drifts in and out of others All however are just yarns meant to entertain the reader

Looking Through Stone Susan Ioannou, 2010-08-13 Much past Canadian poetry described our people and landscape in lyrical terms Combining research and wonder Looking Through Stone burrows deeper the first collection of poems in Canada devoted exclusively to geology and mining Quite literally it goes underground From volcanoes to vitamins the book presents a wealth of factual information It also explores past more fanciful notions about how rocks metals and minerals fit into our human picture In its pages knowledge and imagination meet Part I introduces a little basic geology Part II focuses on the seven metals of the ancients linked to the planets and days of the week plus platinum and uranium Part III delves into myths and legends about the power of gemstones Part IV looks at the history and technology of mining and its social and economic impact A helpful glossary concludes this unique book that brings science and poetry together
