Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2002 Songs Derek Henderson, 2014-11-15 The poems in Derek Henderson's Songs are translations of a film cycle of the same name shot by American filmmaker Stan Brakhage 1933-2003 to document his and his family's life in Colorado in the mid 1960s Where Brakhage's films provide a subjective visual record of his experience bewildered by the eye these poems let language bewilder the space a reader enters through the ear Henderson tenders the visual experience of Brakhage's films films of the domestic and the wild the private and political the local and global into language that insists on the ultimate incapacity of language or of image to fully document the comfort and the violence of intimacy Songs expresses the ecstasy we so often experience in the company of family but it just as urgently attests to ecstasy's turbulent threat to family's stability Like Brakhage's films Henderson's poems carry across into language and find family in every moment even the broken ones all of them abounding in hope
