SUPERNOTES John O'Loughlin, 2022-03-16 With his Collected Supernotes author John O Loughlin has combined on a highly abstract basis material derived from the independently published titles Devil and God The Omega Book From Materialism to Idealism Towards the Supernoumenon Elemental Spectra Critique of Post Dialectical Idealism Philosophical Truth Veritas Philosophicus and Last Judgements which span the period 1985 93 with a view to bringing some kind of strict chronology to bear on a series of writings dubbed supernotational to distinguish them from essays on the one hand and aphorisms on the other thereby allowing him to establish a kind of intermediate position between essays and aphorisms in the interests of what became a gradual progression towards an enhanced sense of philosophical logic commensurate so he believes with Supertruth and ultimately with a kind of plateau of aphoristic purism A Centretruths Editorial Granting the Seasons

Nathan Sivin, 2008-12-19 China's most sophisticated system of computational astronomy was created for a Mongol emperor who could neither read nor write Chinese to celebrate victory over China after forty years of devastating war. This book explains how and why and reconstructs the observatory and the science that made it possible. For two thousand years a fundamental ritual of government was the emperor's granting the seasons to his people at the New Year by issuing an almanac containing an accurate lunisolar calendar. The high point of this tradition was the Season-granting system Shou shih li 1280. Its treatise records detailed instructions for computing eclipses of the sun and moon and motions of the planets based on a rich archive of observations, some ancient and some new. Sivin, the West's leading scholar of the Chinese sciences, not only recreates the project's cultural, political, bureaucratic, and personal dimensions but translates the extensive treatise and explains every procedure in minimally technical language. The book contains many tables, illustrations, and aids to reference. It is clearly written for anyone who wants to understand the fundamental role of science in Chinese history. There is no comparable study of state science in any other early civilization.

Life in Space Amri Wandel, Joseph Gale, 2025-09-02 Over the last two decades alone, new technology and space missions have profoundly changed our understanding of prospective extraterrestrial life in the universe. The resulting field of astrobiology has become a highly eclectic and interdisciplinary pursuit encompassing many of the natural sciences and holding ramifications for nearly all other areas of study. Co-written by an astrophysicist and a biologist, this introductory undergraduate textbook presents an overview of astrobiology for students from all backgrounds. Addressed in its chapters are the recent detection of potentially habitable planets and the prospects for detecting biosignatures and life; the celestial and geological factors that enabled the appearance and evolution of life on Earth; and other factors that continue to affect life up to the present, such as climate change. Based on over twenty years of university coursework and, in particular, the authors' own interdisciplinary astrobiology curriculum, the text is accessible not just for the budding science major but for any undergraduate student or lay reader excited by the prospect of life in the universe.

The Way of God Sher Gill, 2014-09-10 The way of God. It just is. There are no two ways; either you are living within this spiritual fountain or waiting at seashore. In this book, there are a number of chapters: The Way of God, Spirit Children of God, Are you a Gardener, Love, Force, Silence, and many more, to express the qualities or attitudes to be adopted to have any spiritual success within the presence of God. Any religious or material approach will not lead you in to the presence of God until you adopt universal spiritual living, same as God itself. Now you have become part of IT, and there is nothing you can not know or experience. This life has to be lived consciously, and make the most of it while you can; lost time is never recovered. This ticking needle of clock does not stop for anyone; move along with this present moment; it is continuous of IS-ness all the time as IT just is. Spirit is the only way, being the essence of God. There is no other way or path that leads directly to the centre of God. May you find your way within.
