been tested in congregations seminaries and campus ministries amid a wide range of denominational and cultural styles An underlying theological assumption of this approach is that we are engaged in holy work when we plan and prepare for worship Leaders study preparation and training are themselves an encounter with the Holy Therefore we are called to become more informed and better prepared liturgical leaders The language and encouraging style of the book is accessible to student pastors pastors and lay people interested in learning to think more deeply about worship The Season of Creation Norman C.
