The Word Before the Powers Charles L. Campbell, 2002-01-01 In this examination of the ethical significance of preaching Charles Campbell provides both fresh insights into the relationship between preaching and ethics and a challenging moral vision for the contemporary church Moving beyond a narrow focus on moral decision making or social issues sermons Campbell argues that a particular ethic nonviolent resistance is inherent in the practice of preaching and shapes the moral life of the church In the face of the powers the fundamental ethical task of preaching involves building up the church as a community of resistance Employing three dimensions of character ethics vision practices and virtues Campbell demonstrates the concrete ways in which preachers may undertake this task

Ambassadors of Reconciliation: New Testament reflections on restorative justice and peacemaking Ched Myers, Elaine Enns, 2009 Both Ched Myers and Elaine Enns work for Bartimaeus Ministries in California Myers the author of Binding the Strong Man and Who Will Roll Away the Stone focuses on building biblical literary church renewal and faith based witness for justice Enns has worked for twenty years in the field of restorative justice and conflict transformation Book jacket

Who Will Roll Away the Stone? Ched Myers, 1994 The author of the critically acclaimed Binding the Strong Man exposes the social and spiritual stones that impede us in our development and growth as Christians In every age writes Myers disciples despair that the story has ended only to discover that the stone has been rolled away reopening the possibility and imperative of following the Way of Jesus As a sequel to Binding the Strong Man Who Will Roll Away the Stone brings Myers study of the gospel of Mark full circle The first book provided a compelling reading of Mark's gospel as a manual of radical discipleship in the ancient Roman empire Who Will Roll Away the Stone picks up and extends the gospel's challenge specifically to those living in the contemporary imperial context Each chapter opens with classic questions from within the gospel itself Beginning with Peter's denial of Jesus Who Will Roll Away the Stone shows how and why first world Christians politically free socially mobile and resource rich seem typically unable or unwilling to struggle for social change Myers uses three of the most troubling and problematic of recent events the Los Angeles riots the Gulf War the Columbus quincentennial to demonstrate how the subtle complexities of a culture of technological wizardry information overload and short term memory can be recognized as blocking the first step on the journey of discipleship Myers then turns to the second stage of discipleship which is conversion literally a call to change direction both as individuals and as a society He continues with a deconstruction of the modus vivendi of U S culture using experiments in other ways of living including social relocation and nonviolent politics He then moves into the third stage of the call to discipleship to reconstruct the church and the world through positive action building solidarity with one another and with the poor accepting and celebrating diversity and its gifts and reclaiming the discourse of the reign of God from those who use it to defend the status quo With Ever Joyful Hearts J. Neil Alexander, Marion J. Hatchett, 1999 The occasion of Dr Hatchett s thirtieth anniversary as professor of liturgics and church music at the School of Theology of the University of the South is being celebrated with this stimulating collection of essays by an international cadre of authors

The War on Terrorism and the Terror of God Lee Griffith, 2004 Uniquely relevant in a world shaken by recent acts of terror this title calls people of faith to the way of peace the Christian response to evil and violence From Fast to Feast Cas Wepener, 2009 Today some years after the first democratic elections in South Africa as well as the final report of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC it is clear that reconciliation is still needed on all terrains of South African society More and more people are becoming aware of unchanneled emotions such as guilt fury revenge and grief which are still alive in South Africa and which come to fore in different ways It seems as if reconciliation is a process that will in fact take years if not generations The task of the TRC has been completed but the task of reconciliation on all levels in South African society and the debate surrounding it are far from complete Very little research has been conducted to understand both the process and the kinds of reconciliation rituals that are needed And this is exactly the aim of the research described in this book The research described here aims at making a contribution towards the process of reconciliation in South Africa by specifically looking at one small but important element in that process namely ritual To this end several ritual probes were conducted including an ethnographic probe describing research by means of participatory observation in local South African communities as well as a cultural anthropological biblical historical and descriptive probe From these probes ritual qualities were distilled which can be used for the liturgical inculturation of rituals of reconciliation in South Africa Logic of the Powers Pak Nung Wong, 2021-07-29 What global future would ensure hope justice and peace to the human mankind In view of a fast evolving post Covid world order this volume explores a novel Christian post colonial approach to global affairs It examines the existing sociology of the powers theoretical scheme the debate between Christian realism and Christian pacifism the method and practice of prophetic witnessing to elaborate a new Christian approach to statecraft and futurology in terms of theory methodology and ontology This book Uses the COVID 19 pandemic as the background to examine why and how the pandemic has accelerated the US s decline and to identify the tacit game rules that contributed to the UK government s mishandling of the pandemic Compares the political systems between China and the West and engages with selected theoretical narratives from the Global South to envision an alternative shared globalisation project Argues why it is important for post colonial Christian individuals and communities to get involved in this global discussion for a new world order of complex realist interdependencies grounded on hope social justice and peace A fresh take on global politics and international relations this volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of political science religious studies peace studies theology and future studies
