MY AUTOBIOGRAPHY

I am Alea Mae D. Benitez, I was born on May 7, 2000 in Pasay City, Philippines. We are two siblings in the family, I am the second child. My mother's name is Divina D. Benitez from Sorsogon, Bicol. My father's name is Nels Benitez. And he is from Camarines Sur, Bicol.

During weekends, we usually spend our days in the family. We always go to church. We helped each other in our activities. My family was a happy and loving family. I had a happy childhood living with my parents and my siblings. I completed my elementary education at Don Carlos Velez Elementary School. During my junior high school, I completed my junior high school at President Corazon Aquino National High School and I usually spend my time with my friends. Since the lockdown, I have a daily routine with my friend for a Google meet until dawn, and we do various things when we do, such as talk about what is going on in our lives and watch movies that have been shown several times. We have been watched pitch perfect all seasons. I finished it several times. When I am not with them, I watch shows like Mr. Queen and Ghost Doctor. And I am a senior at Pasay City South High School, I work hard on everything I can to get into a good university where I can attend college.

Shadow Of My Hand An Autobiography:

The Works of the Rev. R. Hawker ... With a Memoir of His Life and Writings by the Rev. J. Williams Robert Hawker, 1831

Underserved Suffering: A Psychospiritual Autobiography of Post-Colonial Faith from the Puerto Rican Diaspora Gerardo

De Jesus, PhD, 2023-09-15 From the Introduction This story seeks to nuance moments in my history as the son of diasporic parents As members of the many who migrated my parents became an us to a them in a world where being different felt threatening They experienced their own undeserved suffering while holding on to the dream of American Exceptionalism

Puerto Rican Americans arrived with prayers on their lips bibles and rosaries in hand and though it felt like an expulsion from paradise our colonial faith sustained us The God we knew over there was also here in our new hiding place called

Spanish Harlem fondly called el Barrio The faith inherited from 5 centuries of colonialism has grown into our collective identity and though its sacred stories speak to our realities its legacy has also contributed to colonial aims I draw from the life of one of colonial Christianity's greatest saints St Francis of Assisi who emulates the life of Jesus in the 13th century

Francis faced the falseness of religious clericalism the plight of the poor in a shame honor culture and a dualistic consciousness that still prevails and which refuses to embrace otherness How might his life speak to Puerto Ricans in diaspora How might we re imagine the colonial faith inherited Memoir of Shadows Redemption Darren Hollinshead, 2010-09-07 The final chapter of the survivors story they face the end knowing what comes They continue forward regardless of the wreckage they leave behind The war they started reaches desperate times They must now not only rally each other but the entire galaxy Their journey during this eventually leads them to their ending They realise that not all stories have a happy ending Every story has an ending this is there s A Memoir of Absence Frederic Colier, 2013-03-16

Ever since Salinger nine seems to be a magic number when it comes to rendering debut short story collections Frederic

Colier's A Memoir of Absence is no exception Embarking on an evocative journey through the heartland of our own delusions

Colier's terse prose guides us beyond the barren cultural plane of our all too malleable American dreams taking us into a realm of intellectual urgency linguistic renewal and eventual hope Here where relativist cant contemporary platitudes and even shocking news become no more than the white noise of a fleeting civilization there is nothing more alarming than the ensuing silence left by those collisions that never get the chance to take place In the title story an estranged father and son are each relegated their own brand of dystopia only to find that it is their respective torments that ineffably bind them to one another While one pursues impossible love around the globe the other tries making sense of the void surrounding him Oddly it is their parallel misfortunes that find shelter in the harmonious space of absence recalled Similarly Lipstick on the Fishbowl depicts how grief often blinds one from seeing the object of loss As a bereaved businessman searches for the proper way to express loss for his departed wife he begins to overlook the significance of her passing As for those in throes of jealousy misreading even the best of intentions The Depth of Swimming Pool is a somber portrayal of a woman who in her state of constant apprehension ends up undermining that which she most desires But whether it is observers dreaming of becoming participants or the emotionally alienated hordes for whom pain becomes a final solace the terrain traversed by Colier s nine stories is neither one that would fill a postcard nor one that sports the trendy wasteland so readily employed by our time s countdown artists As the lonely overweight opera singer Josephina considers the abject proposals of a sexless man or the abused young woman in Cristianos y Moros finally returns home to confront her dismissive parents we note with relief that Colier s intention is not to flesh out some vague musings about our era but to attend to those who straddle the crossroads of a world where choosing a direction is no longer a value in itself If there is a poignancy to be had A Memoir of Absence says we re to find it in those uncertain moments when event is temporarily subsumed by interpretation This does not mean that observations made by characters are lucid or objective On the contrary it is our vulnerability to catch phrases our compromised visions and our pathos while estimating our own suffering hearts that bring integrity to our lives Colier s short stories are the fragments of a lost anthem the disparate melodies that once made up what we mystically referred to as the human spirit

Memoir of Shadows Revelations Darren Hollinshead, 2010-07-21 The second chapter in the trilogy The survivors of Prego have now made new lives for themselves Their lives don t stay so simple and relaxed for long The Human Alliance starts to assault Dark Space annihilating everything they come across This is not the only danger however something prepares to strike from the darkness The return of an old friend brings hope this brings them together once more The choices and betrayal of one person causes a tragedy that humanity will never forget Briskin traces the emergence of the quest for efficiency and control in the workplace. He questions the corporate concept of individual personality that asks us to check our emotions, fantasies, imaginations, and souls at the door. He describes the history of the soul as a dynamic force that continues to influence our behavior and shows how excluding it from our work life actually flattens our potential and dampens our creativity. Rather than solve the conventional question organizations have been asking for years, how can we change people, Alan Briskin examines how organizations can better reflect personal and human values in the workplace. For organizations that too often have sacrificed the well-being of the individual for the goals of the organization, the author suggests a more active way of taking up our work roles that can bring more of our experience and imagination into play. He points out that meaning cannot come from corporate mission statements or reengineering programs. Instead, it needs to be nurtured through dialogue and reflection, the courage to ask troubling questions, and a willingness to face the consequences of our collective and individual actions. When we learn to honor the contradictions, uncertainties, and interconnections inherent in the workplace, the energies of the soul will begin to stir with revitalizing results.
