The Uses of Photography Jill Dawsey, Pamela M. Lee, Benjamin Young, Judith Rodenbeck, David Antin, 2016-09-21 The Uses of Photography examines a network of artists who were active in Southern California between the late 1960s and early 1980s and whose experiments with photography opened the medium to a profusion of new strategies and subjects These artists introduced urgent social issues and themes of everyday life into the seemingly neutral territory of conceptual art through photographic works that took on hybrid forms from books and postcards to video and text and image installations Tracing a crucial history of photoconceptual practice The Uses of Photography focuses on an artistic community that formed in and around the young University of California San Diego founded in 1960 and its visual arts department founded in 1967 Artists such as Eleanor Antin Allan Kaprow Fred Lonidier Martha Rosler Allan Sekula and Carrie Mae Weems employed photography and its expanded forms as a means to dismantle modernist autonomy to contest notions of photographic truth and to engage in political critique The work of these artists shaped emergent accounts of postmodernism in the visual arts and their influence is felt throughout the global contemporary art world today Contributors include David Antin Pamela M Lee Judith Rodenbeck and Benjamin J Young Published in association with the Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego Exhibition dates Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego September 24 2016 January 2 2017 The Black

Female Body in American Literature and Art Caroline Brown,2013-02-28 This book examines how African American writers and visual artists interweave icon and inscription in order to re present the black female body traditionally rendered alien and inarticulate within Western discursive and visual systems Brown considers how the writings of Toni Morrison Gayl Jones Paule Marshall Edwidge Danticat Jamaica Kincaid Andrea Lee Gloria Naylor and Martha Southgate are bound to such contemporary postmodern visual artists as Lorna Simpson Carrie Mae Weems Kara Walker Betye Saar and Faith Ringgold While the artists and authors rely on radically different media photos collage video and assembled objects as opposed to words and rhythm both sets of intellectual activists insist on the primacy of the black aesthetic Both assert artistic agency and cultural continuity in the face of the oppression social transformation and cultural multiplicity of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries This book examines how African American performative practices mediate the tension between the ostensibly de racialized body politic and the hyper racialized black female body reimagining the cultural and political ground that guides various articulations of American national belonging Brown shows how and why black women writers and artists matter as agents of change how and why the form and content of their works must be recognized and reconsidered in the increasingly frenzied arena of cultural production and political debate Architectures of Excess Jim

Collins,2020-10-28 First Published in 1995 Much of recent theory has characterized life in media sophisticated societies in terms of a semiotic overload which allegedly has had only devastating effects on communication and subjectivity In Architectures of Excess Jim Collins argues that while the rate of technological change has indeed accelerated so has the rate of absorption The seemingly endless array of information has generated not chaos but different structures and strategies which harness that excess by turning it into forms of art and entertainment Digital sampling in rap music and cyber punk science fiction are well known examples of techno pop textuality but Collins concentrates on other contemporaneous phenomena that are also envisioning new cultural landscapes by accessing that array hyper self reflexivity in mall movies best sellers and prime time television the deconstructive vs new classical debate in architecture the emergence of the New Black Aesthetic the development of retro modernism in interior design and the fashion industries The analyses of these disparate discontinuous attempts to develop a meaningful sense of location in an historical as well as a spatial sense address a cluster of interconnected questions How is the array of information being domesticated How has appropriationism evolved from the Pop Art of the sixties to the sampling of the nineties How has the relationship between tradition innovation and evaluation been altered Architectures of Excess investigates how these phenomena reflect change in taste and subjectivity
