Sussman, C. Robert Cloninger, 2011-08-02 This book is about the evolution and nature of cooperation and altruism in social living animals focusing especially on non human primates and on humans Although cooperation and altruism are often thought of as ways to attenuate competition and aggression within groups or are related to the action of selfish genes there is increasing evidence that these behaviors are the result of biological mechanisms that have developed through natural selection in group living species This evidence leads to the conclusion that cooperative and altruistic behavior are not just by products of competition but are rather the glue that underlies the ability for primates and humans to live in groups The anthropological primatological paleontological behavioral neurobiological and psychological evidence provided in this book gives a more optimistic view of human nature than the more popular conventional view of humans being naturally and basically aggressive and warlike Although competition and aggression are recognized as an important part of the non human primate and human behavioral repertoire the evidence from these fields indicates that cooperation and altruism may represent the more typical normal and healthy behavioral pattern The book is intended both for the general reader and also for students at a variety of levels graduate and undergraduate it aims to provide a compact accessible and up to date account of the current scholarly advances and debates in this field of study and it is designed to be used in teaching and in discussion groups The book derived from a conference sponsored by N S F the Wenner Gren Foundation for Anthropological Research the Washington University Committee for Ethics and Human Values and the Anthropedia Foundation for the study of well being A Trilogy Called Tribes! Richard Curtis Williams, 2011-10-06 Book one is focused on the Island Kingdom of Kebra founded by General Jakarta Osiris a Blackamoor who along with his fifty thousand plus army endured a bloody battle and took the massive island group that sits just off the coast of Southeast Africa the taking of the Islands allowed the Romans to defeat the Germans and the great Julius Caesar was so pleased he awarded the Islands to the General as a reward for his service to Rome thus the monarchy was born and Jakarta Osiris began to write his prophecy dubbed the Jakarta Papers that called for African kingdoms to unite and build an empire not unlike that of Rome over the centuries his successors would add chapters of their own by the twentieth century his prophecy became Jakarta Unlimited a plan to unite African nations through corporate development the twenty first century brought on the Blackstreet Prospectus as ordered by Jakarta Osiris IV affectingly referred to as the Chairman and it is his generation that has begun the implementation of the plan whose concept of mission is to bring selected African nations into world power status And so it begins Cape Monthly Magazine, 1875 The Cape Monthly Magazine, 1875
