Flights of Fancy, Leaps of Faith Cindy Dell Clark,1995 Through the mysteries and myths of Christmas and Easter families balance the values of receiving and giving of growth and sacrifice Each aspect of the Santa myth from his slide down a chimney to his big red suit plays a part in a child s imagination Through their offerings of milk and cookies and their letter writing children bring their relationship to Santa into developing attitudes toward giving and receiving gifts The Easter Bunny story with its ritual egg hunt and baskets of brightly colored candy is explored in terms of life and its possibility of growth In these examples Clark shows how children play an active role in constructing family rituals and cultural reality since their willingness to make the stories their own helps to renew the traditions
