Lost Thoughts Of Soldiers:

The Lost Thoughts of Soldiers Delia Falconer, 2009-08-10 Georgia 1898 On what may be the last day of his life Captain Frederick Benteen the man who saved Custer's Seventh Cavalry from almost certain death at Little Bighorn receives a letter from an ambitious boy offering to restore his reputation For over 23 years Benteen has silently watched Custer's legend grow His General has been dead for more than 20 years killed in action considered a hero while the public has never forgiven Benteen for surviving Now at last he begins to put down some account of those two horrific days pinned down on a ridge What follows is an exquisite eulogy for his fellow soldiers both alive and dead Funny moving rich in character and incident this acclaimed novel avoids the bloody battle scenes and maudlin romance that characterize much Civil War based fiction in favor of an unsparing and poetic story that explores what it means to be a soldier then and now The Lost Thoughts of Soldiers Delia Falconer, 2006-05-08 In 1876 Captain Frederick Benteen of Custer's 7th Cavalry survived Little Bighorn but has never been forgiven by the public Twenty years later he receives a letter from an ambitious boy offering to restore his reputation Australian Fiction as Archival Salvage Frances A. Johnson, 2015-11-16 Australian Fiction as Archival Salvage examines key developments in the field of the Australian postcolonial historical novel from 1989 to the present In parallel with this analysis A Frances Johnson undertakes a unique study of in kind creativity reflecting on how her own nascent historical fiction has been critically and imaginatively shaped and inspired by seminal experiments in the genre by writers as diverse as Kate Grenville Mudrooroo Kim Scott Peter Carey Richard Flanagan and Rohan Wilson Mapping the postcolonial novel against the impact of postcolonial cultural theory and Australian writers intermittent embrace of literary postmodernism this survey is also read against the post millennial history and culture wars which saw politicizations of national debates around history and fierce contestation over the ways stories of Australian pasts have been written The Best Australian Stories 2009 (Volume 2 of 2) (EasyRead Super Large 20pt Edition), Creative Writing Practice Debra Adelaide, Sarah Attfield, 2021-10-09 Creative Writing Practice reflections on form and process explores the craft of creative writing by illuminating the practices of writers and writer educators Demonstrating solutions to problems in different forms and genres the contributors draw on their professional and personal experiences to examine specific and practical challenges that writers must confront and solve in order to write This book discusses a range of approaches to writing such as the early working out of projects the idea of experimentation of narrative time and of failure With its strong focus on process Creative Writing Practice is a valuable guide for students scholars and practitioners of creative writing Lost Causes Bradley R. Clampitt, 2022-06 This groundbreaking analysis of Confederate demobilization examines the state of mind of Confederate soldiers in the immediate aftermath of war Having survived severe psychological as well as physical trauma they now faced the unknown as they headed back home in defeat Lost Causes analyzes the interlude between soldier and veteran suggesting that defeat and demobilization actually reinforced Confederate identity as well as public memory of the war and southern resistance to African American civil rights Intense material shortages and images of the war s devastation confronted the defeated soldiers turned veterans as they returned home to a revolutionized society Their thoughts upon homecoming turned to immediate economic survival a radically altered relationship with freedpeople and life under Yankee rule all against the backdrop of fearful uncertainty Bradley R Clampitt argues that the experiences of returning soldiers helped establish the ideological underpinnings of the Lost Cause and create an identity based upon shared suffering and sacrifice a pervasive commitment to white supremacy and an aversion to Federal rule and all things northern As Lost Causes reveals most Confederate veterans remained diehard Rebels despite demobilization and the demise of the Confederate States of America have shaped Israeli military thought The explanations are a mixture of realist and non realist factors which can be found at both the systemic and the state level of analysis At the systemic level realist evaluations focus on factors such as the dominance of the technological dimension and the pervasiveness of asymmetrical low intensity conflict whereas at the state level one can find realist explanations cultural factors and societal influences Moral and legal constraints also factor into both the systemic and state levels
