Critique Karin van Marle, Stewart Motha, 2013-12-01 The book seeks to open and explore the liminal space of critique at the intersection of law aesthetics and politics The essays in this volume elaborate and expand the meaning and significance of critique through an engagement with aesthetic forms Although this endeavour has wider significance the focus is primarily on South Africa The various contributions arose out of a process of reading writing and discussion among visiting scholars at the Stellenbosch Institute for Advanced Study STIAS Stellenbosch University South Africa in 2010 The project responds to the limits of the transplantation of critical legal studies into different jurisdictions especially South Africa The essays develop an approach to critical legal thinking that is conscious of critique as a problem of genre and seek to open up this problem of genre in the context of critical legal studies The War on Music John Mauceri, 2022-04-26 A prominent conductor explores how aesthetic criteria masked the political goals of countries during the three great wars of the past century Mauceri's writing is more exhilarating than any helicopter ride we have been on Air Mail Fluently written and often cogent Barton

Observed 1711-1844, Volume IV Michael Burden, 2024-08-01 The thrust of these five volumes is contained in their title London Opera Observed It takes its cue from the numerous texts and volumes which during the seventeenth eighteenth and nineteenth centuries used the concept of spying or observing by a narrator or rambler as a means of establishing a discourse on aspects of London life The material in this five volume reset edition examines opera not simply as a genre of performance but as a wider topic of comment and debate The stories that surrounded the Italian opera singers illuminate contemporary British attitudes towards performance sexuality and national identity The collection includes only complete published material organised chronologically so as to accurately retain the contexts in which the original readers encountered them placing an emphasis on rare texts that have not been reproduced in modern editions The aim of this collection is not to provide a history of opera in England but to facilitate the writing of them or to assist those wishing to study topics within the field Headnotes and footnotes establish the publication information and provide an introduction to the piece its author and the events surrounding it or which caused its publication The notes concentrate on attempting to identify those figures mentioned within the texts The approach is one of presentation not interpretation ensuring that the collection occupies a position that is neutral rather than polemical Phonurgia Universalis: Universals in Music François-Bernard

Mâche, 2024-06-20 This translation of Musique au singulier 2001 from the French identifies what is common to music of all times and cultures The author François Bernard Mâche is a composer and internationally renowned musicologist He addresses the question of universals in music and demonstrates how musical play is a poetic and natural game that already takes shape in the animal world Mâche invites the reader to reconsider the traditional opposition between nature and culture and to reflect on experiencing such intense emotions when both listening to and manipulating sounds This title appeals to students and researchers working in musicology 101 Albums that Changed Popular Music Chris Smith, 2009 Chris Smith tells the fascinating stories behind the most groundbreaking influential and often controversial albums ever recorded

Music Writing Literature, from Sand Via Debussy to Derrida Peter Dayan, 2006 Why does poetry appeal to music Can music be said to communicate as language does What between music and poetry is it possible to translate These fundamental questions have remained obstinately difficult despite the recent burgeoning of word and music studies Peter

Dayan contends that the reasons for this difficulty were worked out with extraordinary rigour and consistency in a French literary tradition echoed by composers such as Berlioz and Debussy which stretches from Sand to Derrida Their writing shows how it is both necessary and futile to look for music in poetry or for poetry in music
