Marcus Aurelius Aspects Of Civic And Cultural Policy In The East:

Marcus Aurelius: Aspects of Civic and Cultural Policy in the East James Henry Oliver, 1970 An important inscription found in the Roman market place in Athens is here published for the first time Although fragmentary it preserves the text of a formal letter from Marcus Aurelius directed to the Athenians in the year A D 174 5 The Roman emperor s decisions in cases concerning office holding membership of the council and the appointment of the Athenian members of the Panhellenion the council of cities established by Hadrian are recorded Elicited by a complaint to the emperor from prominent citizens the letter also sheds light on the brutal political quarrels that swirled around the Athenian administrator Herodes Atticus builder of some of Athens s best known monuments

Epigraphic Culture in the Eastern Mediterranean in Antiquity

Krzysztof Nawotka, 2020-09-21 This book investigates the epigraphic habit of the Eastern Mediterranean in antiquity from the inception of alphabetic writing to the seventh c CE aiming to identify whether there was one universal epigraphic culture in this area or a number of discrete epigraphic cultures Chapters examine epigraphic culture s through quantitative analysis of 32 062 inscriptions sampled from ten areas in the Eastern Mediterranean from the Black Sea coast to Greece western to central Asia Minor Phoenicia to Egypt They show that the shapes of the epigraphic curves are due to different factors occurring in different geographical areas and in various epochs including the pre Greek epigraphic habit the moment of urbanization and Hellenization and the organized Roman presence Two epigraphic maxima are identified in the Eastern Mediterranean in the third c BCE and in the second c CE This book differs from previous studies of ancient epigraphic culture by taking into account all categories of inscriptions not just epitaphs and in investigating a much broader area over the broadly defined classical antiquity This volume is a valuable resource for anyone working on ancient epigraphy history or the cultures of the Eastern Mediterranean

The Oxford Handbook of Social Relations in the Roman World

Michael Peachin, 2011-01-04 The study of Roman society and social relations blossomed in the 1970s By now we possess a very large literature on the individuals and groups that constituted the Roman community and the various ways in which members of that community interacted There simply is however no overview that takes into account the multifarious progress that has been made in the past thirty odd years The purpose of this handbook is twofold On the one hand it synthesizes what has heretofore been accomplished in this field On the other hand it attempts to configure the examination of Roman social relations in some new ways and thereby indicates directions in which the discipline might now proceed The book opens with a substantial general introduction that portrays the current state of the field indicates some avenues for further study and provides the background necessary for the following chapters It lays out what is now known about the historical development of Roman society and the essential structures of that community In a second introductory article Clifford Ando explains the chronological parameters of the handbook The main body of the book is divided into the following six sections 1 Mechanisms of Socialization primary education rhetorical education family law 2 Mechanisms of Communication and Interaction 3

Communal Contexts for Social Interaction 4 Modes of Interpersonal Relations friendship patronage hospitality dining funerals benefactions honor 5 Societies Within the Roman Community collegia cults Judaism Christianity the army and 6 Marginalized Persons slaves women children prostitutes actors and gladiators bandits The result is a unique up to date and comprehensive survey of ancient Roman society The Ceremonial Sculptures of the Roman Gods Brian

Madigan,2012-11-23 The well known formats of Roman sculpture are the ones best preserved but inevitably limited to those designed to be permanent and immobile A significant component of the Roman visual world missing from this record are those images which depict or stand in for the Roman gods during ceremonies Statuary of this type is in some measure mobile designed specifically to be carried about in processions brought out for public viewing at throne ceremonies or participate in divine banquets In addition to defining the characteristics of these ceremonial sculptures this study also addresses their performative qualities where and how they appeared who was responsible for handling them with what conventions of decorum and with what response from the audience Greek Epigraphy and Religion Emily Mackil,Nikolaos

Papazarkadas,2020-12-29 In Greek Epigraphy and Religion Emily Mackil and Nikolaos Papazarkadas bring together a series of papers first presented at a special session of the Second North American Congress of Greek and Latin Epigraphy Berkeley 2016 That session was dedicated to the memory of Sara B Aleshire one of the leading Greek epigraphists of the twentieth century The volume at hand includes a combination of previously unpublished inscriptions overlooked epigraphical documents and well known inscribed texts that are reexamined with fresh eyes and approaches The relevant documents cover a wide geographical range including Athens and Attica the Peloponnese Epirus Thessaly the Aegean islands and Egypt This collection ultimately explores the insights provided by epigraphical texts into the religious beliefs and practices of the ancient Greeks but also revisits critically some entrenched doctrines in the field of Greek religion The Life and Death of

Ancient Cities Greg Woolf,2020-07-17 The human race is on a 10 000 year urban adventure Our ancestors wandered the planet or lived scattered in villages yet by the end of this century almost all of us will live in cities But that journey has not been a smooth one and urban civilizations have risen and fallen many times in history The ruins of many of them still enchant us This book tells the story of the rise and fall of ancient cities from the end of the Bronze Age to the beginning of the Middle Ages It is a tale of war and politics pestilence and famine triumph and tragedy by turns both fabulous and squalid Its focus is on the ancient Mediterranean Greeks and Romans at the centre but Phoenicians and Etruscans Persians Gauls and Egyptians all play a part The story begins with the Greek discovery of much more ancient urban civilizations in Egypt and the Near East and charts the gradual spread of urbanism to the Atlantic and then the North Sea in the centuries that followed The ancient Mediterranean where our story begins was a harsh environment for urbanism So how were cities first created and then sustained for so long in these apparently unpromising surroundings How did they feed themselves where did they find water and building materials and what did they do with their waste and their dead Why in the end did their rulers give up on them

And what it was like to inhabit urban worlds so unlike our own cities plunged into darkness every night cities dominated by the temples of the gods cities of farmers cities of slaves cities of soldiers Ultimately the chief characters in the story are the cities themselves Athens and Sparta Persepolis and Carthage Rome and Alexandria cities that formed great families Their story encompasses the history of the generations of people who built and inhabited them whose short lives left behind monuments that have inspired city builders ever since and whose ruins stand as stark reminders to the 21st century of the perils as well as the potential rewards of an urban existence Rome and the Arabian Frontier David F. Graf, 2019-04-23

First published in 1997 this collection of essays from David F Graf an esteemed ancient historian and archaeologist specializing of the Greco Roman world in the Levant and Arabia represent over two decades of his own research on Roman Arabia which occurred during twenty five years of a virtual explosion in our knowledge of this remote corner of the Roman empire Graf s preoccupation has primarily focused on the population of the region rather than its forts and communication system He explores such diverse matters as the urbanization of the area regional demography the defensive system fluctuating provincial borders and the relations with frontier peoples until the Islamic Conquests Graecia Capta Susan E. Alcock, 1993 Tracing social and economic developments from 200 B C to A D 200 the particular emphasis of this study lies in the use of archaeological surface survey data a form of evidence only recently available to examine the countryside and demographic change of the ancient world The Province of Achaëa in the 2nd Century CE Anna Kouremenos, 2022-03-06

The Province of Achaëa in the 2nd Century CE explores the conception and utilization of the Greek past in the Roman province of Achaëa in the 2nd century CE and the reception of the artistic cultural and intellectual outputs of this century in later periods Achaëa often defined by international scholars as old Greece was the only Roman province located entirely within the confines of the Modern Greek state In many ways Achaëa in the 2nd century CE witnessed a second Golden Age one based on collective historical nostalgia under Roman imperial protection and innovation The papers in this volume are holistic in scope with special emphasis on Roman imperial relations with the people of Achaëa and their conceptualizations of their past Material culture monumental and domestic spaces and artistic representations are discussed as well as the literary output of individuals like Plutarch Herodes Atticus Aelius Aristides and others The debate over Roman influence in various Hellenic cities and the significance of collective historical nostalgia also feature in this volume as does the utilization of Achaëa s past in the Roman present within the wider empire As this century has produced the highest percentage of archaeological and literary material from the Roman period in the province under consideration the time is ripe to position it more firmly in the academic discourse of studies of the Roman Empire The Province of Achaëa in the 2nd Century CE will appeal to scholars students and other individuals who are interested in the history archaeology art and literature of the Graeco Roman world and its reception The Second Jewish Revolt Menahem Mor, 2016-04-18 In The Second Jewish Revolt The Bar Kokhba War 132 136 C E Menahem Mor offers a detailed account on the Bar Kokhba Revolt in an attempt to understand the second revolt against the Romans Since the Bar Kokhba Revolt did not have a historian who devoted a comprehensive book to the event Mor used a variety of historical materials including literary sources Jewish Christian Greek and Latin and archaeological sources inscriptions coins military diplomas hideouts and refuge complexes The book reviews the causes for the outbreak while explaining the complexity of the territorial expansion of the Revolt Mor portrays the participants and opponents as well as the attitudes of the non Jewish population in Palestine He exposes the Roman Army's part in Judaea the Jewish leadership and the implications of the Revolt
