Humanity Is Trying Jason Gots,2022-03-01 A truly beautiful wise raw subtle book Robert MacFarlane author of Underland My sister and I are driving south toward Graceland in her beat up red Saturn both in need of refuge both running from different things Her bumper sticker reads Humanity Is Trying It s a triple entendre she explains Humanity is exhausting Humanity is struggle Humanity is doing the best it knows how Humanity Is Trying is several books in one It s a memoir about the love and the loss of a sister and a best friend It s the story of a series of escape attempts cowardly courageous harmful and hopeful experiments in freedom from the stories that limit us And it s a record of spiritual intellectual and emotional growth with the help of friends psychedelics art and spiritual practice From Jason Gots creator of the podcasts Think Again and Clever Creature comes a philosophical love letter to the slow messy work of building a life and living with your dreams in the face of reality The Last Friend of God Paul Johnson,2019-12-12 Decades after persecution and loss drove him into hiding one old preacher has received a vision from God in one week his city will be destroyed Walter Barnes abandoned his pulpit long ago and has watched as the church he loved faded into silence giving an increasingly violent world over to its own devices Now judgment is coming but like Abraham Walter has made a wager with God If he can change the heart of the city then mercy will have its day His journey will lead him from the broken streets to the steel citadels of a city that has forgotten him and his faith forcing him to confront the choices that have haunted him for years And the clock is ticking

Ghostwalker Erik Scott De Bie,2010-04-07 This scar on my arm is the mark of the thin man s sword These on my chest the barbarian s gyrspike This on my shoulder the woodman s axe And this rasping whisper all that is left of my voice it is the scar of the Lord Singer s jealousy They took my voice and my life and left my body for the crows But not all who die rest in peace Erik Scott de Bie spins a haunting tale of revenge honor love and hate all bound within a dark man whose indomitable spirit marks him as one of The Fighters Economics as Rhetoric Anne Isla,2024-07-26 Bernard Maris was killed in Paris on January 7 2015 during the terrorist attack against the satirical magazine Charlie Hebdo He remains one of the most original intellectuals of contemporary France but despite being a uniquely original heterodox thinker his international reputation has been compromised by the fact that his writings are inaccessible to non French speakers This book remedies that By providing an overview of Bernard Maris life and intellectual trajectory as well as an English translation of an anthology of his most relevant writings this volume provides the international audience for the first time ever the chance to know and understand the contribution of this major heterodox economist An outstanding and atypical figure in economic thought and a virulent critic of mainstream dominant economics he was also an all round actor and thinker of his time Through rigorous reasoning he questioned the notion of well being which he argued is too often conflated with having more Enslavement by work or the endless destructive accumulation of natural wealth is also inherent to the capitalist system Probably his most original contribution is his epistemological reflection on the very nature of economics and his appraisal of this discipline as a form of rhetoric This book will be of great interest to readers in heterodox economics economic methodology epistemology and French literature and culture more broadly

Dreams, Gender, and Artisanal Mining in Papua New Guinea Dan Moretti,2025-10-01 Up to 200 000 Melanesian men women and children work as artisanal miners yet their lifeworlds are seriously under researched This ethnography of a multigenerational community of migrant miners in Papua New Guinea shows that dreaming mediates how they experience and manage gold mining Men argue that they alone can mine successfully by forming oneiric marriage bonds with the spirits of the land Women draw on their own dream experience to challenge this asserting their equal capacity to marry spirits and their right to mine For women and men alike dreams provide legitimations of agency and commentaries on mutual dependencies and moral obligations in the domestic domain and between humans and nonhumans

Meri's Turn in Time Kathleen Ann Emmett,2023-01-24 Meri grew up under the wide Montana sky on a small farm near the Canadian border milking cows feeding chickens and listening to her brother s tales of the stars and starlore But as graduation loomed near she began to regard the figures on the celestial carousel with the sentimentality of a forgotten toy and became increasingly uneasy with her expected entry into a university She had too many questions questions that sitting in a classroom wouldn t answer She needed to find some solid truths truths she could pound against and they wouldn t crumble She was determined to seek them out Leaving for the west coast Meri and her best friend Christine end up moving in with Rex an old environmental warrior who takes them to an old growth forest shares the tools of activism and to Meri s surprise aspires to the same mindset of putting all on the line for a meaningful life Soon she finds work at a state agency starts taking classes and joins protests But she s still strangely comforted when glancing up she makes out familiar figures in that ancient ring of myths encircling the earth She imagines that as ancient sky watchers mapped the path of the sun in the night sky they wove tales of their movements and their own lore into the stars And as she begins to relate to the tales of guardianship and farming balance and wildlife and so many others she begins to find a true purpose and a path for this her turn in time
